Franklin Repository and Observer, November 21, 1860.

THE REALITY IS REVOLUTIONARY.

The following excerpts from the New York Herald, the Philadelphia Inquirer, and the New York Times, as well as the Boston Daily Advertiser, are but a few of the many telegrams, telegraphs, and dispatches that have been received in this city from all parts of the Union. They are of the most important and are being sent to the various States, as well as to the capitals of foreign countries.

ARRIVAL OF THE POST OFFICE.

The Post Office Department has been virtually dissolved, and the Postmaster-General has resigned his office.

THE VOTE OF FLORIDA.

The vote of Florida is not an isolated matter. It is a part of a general movement throughout the South, and the result is in keeping with the general sentiment of the people.

NEW MARYLAND YARD.

The yard will be opened for business, and all orders will be filled promptly.

NEW LONDON BAY.

The bay will be navigable for a distance of 10 miles, and will be of great importance to the commerce of the country.

NEW SPARKS.

The new sparks will be of great value in the preservation of life in cases of fire, and are a great improvement on the old-fashioned kind.

NEW CARLTON PAVEMENT.

The new Carlton pavement will be made of a special kind of stone, and will be of great use in the construction of public buildings.

LATEST NEWS.

BENNETT NEWS.

The Bennett news is of the greatest importance, and will be published in full in the next issue of the paper.

ADVERTISERS.

The advertisers will be kindly informed that their notices will not be published in the next issue of the paper.

From the Cincinnati Enquirer.
Chronicle of King James I.

I. The Reformation of the Kingdom.

1. James, the Second of the House of Lancaster, was the son of James I., and was born in 1566. He was a handsome youth, with a fair countenance, and a strong voice. He was also of a very amiable character, and was beloved by all who knew him.

II. The Reformation of the Church.

1. James was a great admirer of the Reformation, and was always ready to support it. He was also a great friend of the Church of England, and was always ready to defend it.

III. The Reformation of the State.

1. James was a great statesman, and was always ready to defend his country. He was also a great politician, and was always ready to make himself useful.

IV. The Reformation of the People.

1. James was a great friend of the people, and was always ready to help them. He was also a great supporter of the poor, and was always ready to give them what they needed.

V. The Reformation of the World.

1. James was a great reformer, and was always ready to improve the world. He was also a great benefactor, and was always ready to do good to all men.
