PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Upon the good words and patronage for the past year, we do not wish to add to the burden of the people with new political speeches. We are only interested in the people, and have no wish to add to the difficulties of the country. The people are our first consideration, and we are only interested in the welfare of the people. The question of slavery shall be decided by the people, and not by any one, regardless of their political opinions. We are only interested in the welfare of the people, and have no wish to add to the difficulties of the country. Our foreign relations.

Our relations with Spain are one of the most interesting and important of our foreign relations. The character of the Spanish character has been for many years a subject of much discussion and speculation. The Spanish government has been in a state of internal conflict for many years, and the result has been a great deal of uncertainty as to the future of the country.
