VICKSBURG TAKEN!

PEMBERTON SURRENDERS UNCONDITIONALLY.

On Tuesday afternoon Gen. Grant received a signal from Gen. Hardee, expressing the belief that Pemberton's army was greatly weakened in force, and proposing that he should come out and surrender. Gen. Grant was obliged to the general of Pemberton a letter informing him that the terms of surrender would be unconditional. The terms of surrender were accepted.