Never before in the history of the United States has there been a more widespread enthusiasm for the Flag-For-Victory movement. The Union State Ticket.

The Ex-Senator from Franklin County.

[Article discussing the political situation and the Union State Ticket, mentioning specific names and events related to the Civil War era.]

[The text continues with various paragraphs discussing political events and figures, including references to the Confederate States of America's efforts to secure independence, the role of Union generals, and the struggle for control of the government. The text highlights the importance of maintaining Union support and the necessity of a strong military presence to ensure the nation's survival.]

[The article concludes with a call to action, urging readers to support the Union cause and contribute to the war effort.]