The Franklin Repository.

Chambersburg, Pa., Wednesday, August 29, 1865.

Franklin Repository.

FROM PENNSYLVANIA.

THE FIELD OF THE FIGHT.

By William & Stone.

[Article discussing military matters and news.]

PHILADELPHIA.

[Article discussing local news and events.]

WASHINGTON.

[Article discussing political matters and news.]

NEW YORK.

[Article discussing local news and events.]

FROM VIRGINIA.

[Article discussing military matters and news.]

FRANKLIN.

[Article discussing local news and events.]

The Franklin Repository.

Chambersburg, Pa., Wednesday, August 29, 1865.

Vol. 72 - No. 2.

[Additional articles and news items, discussing various topics such as politics, military matters, and local events.]
Franklin Repository.

THE SOUTHERN COAST.

The capture of New Orleans, the capture of Pensacola, and the capture of Mobile, have all given an impulse to the war spirit, and have led to a determination to carry the war to the Southern coast. The capture of New Orleans by the Federal forces under General Butler, has been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Pensacola by the Federal forces under General Banks, has also been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Mobile by the Federal forces under General can also be hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states.

The capture of New Orleans by the Federal forces under General Butler, has been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Pensacola by the Federal forces under General Banks, has also been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Mobile by the Federal forces under General can also be hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states.

The capture of New Orleans by the Federal forces under General Butler, has been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Pensacola by the Federal forces under General Banks, has also been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Mobile by the Federal forces under General can also be hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states.

The capture of New Orleans by the Federal forces under General Butler, has been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Pensacola by the Federal forces under General Banks, has also been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Mobile by the Federal forces under General can also be hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states.

The capture of New Orleans by the Federal forces under General Butler, has been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Pensacola by the Federal forces under General Banks, has also been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Mobile by the Federal forces under General can also be hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states.

The capture of New Orleans by the Federal forces under General Butler, has been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Pensacola by the Federal forces under General Banks, has also been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Mobile by the Federal forces under General can also be hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states.

The capture of New Orleans by the Federal forces under General Butler, has been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Pensacola by the Federal forces under General Banks, has also been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Mobile by the Federal forces under General can also be hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states.

The capture of New Orleans by the Federal forces under General Butler, has been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Pensacola by the Federal forces under General Banks, has also been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Mobile by the Federal forces under General can also be hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states.

The capture of New Orleans by the Federal forces under General Butler, has been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Pensacola by the Federal forces under General Banks, has also been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Mobile by the Federal forces under General can also be hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states.

The capture of New Orleans by the Federal forces under General Butler, has been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Pensacola by the Federal forces under General Banks, has also been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Mobile by the Federal forces under General can also be hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states.

The capture of New Orleans by the Federal forces under General Butler, has been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Pensacola by the Federal forces under General Banks, has also been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Mobile by the Federal forces under General can also be hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states.

The capture of New Orleans by the Federal forces under General Butler, has been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Pensacola by the Federal forces under General Banks, has also been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Mobile by the Federal forces under General can also be hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states.

The capture of New Orleans by the Federal forces under General Butler, has been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Pensacola by the Federal forces under General Banks, has also been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Mobile by the Federal forces under General can also be hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states.

The capture of New Orleans by the Federal forces under General Butler, has been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Pensacola by the Federal forces under General Banks, has also been hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states. The capture of Mobile by the Federal forces under General can also be hailed with universal rejoicing, and has given new hope to the suffering Southern states.
NOTICE.

The people of Franklin County, who have long waited by the Rebel Invasion, are now in need of bread and all sorts of provender.

WILLIAM GRIMWICK.

DEAD IN WARSHORE.

The death of our brave comrade, Private E. L. Haber, of Company B, 1st Pennsylvania Cavalry, occurred last night, Dec. 15th. He was buried in the local cemetery this afternoon. The body was found on the battlefield, where he was killed in action.

FRANKLIN REPOSITORY.

Chambersburg Academy.

Chambersburg Academy, a well-equipped and well-organized institution, is now open for the winter term. The faculty includes experienced and dedicated teachers, and the facilities are modern and up-to-date. It offers a comprehensive curriculum that prepares students for college and career success.

LIVING FEMALE COLLEGE.

Living Female College, located in the heart of the city, offers a range of academic programs designed to empower young women to achieve their full potential. The college emphasizes personal and academic growth, providing a supportive and inclusive environment.

Oldtle.

Oldtle, a popular local landmark, is known for its classic architecture and historical significance. It has been a focal point of the community for many years and serves as a reminder of the town's rich heritage.

The Market.

The market is a bustling hub where locals gather to buy fresh produce, meats, and seafood. It features a variety of stalls offering everything from local cheeses to exotic spices, providing a vibrant and lively shopping experience.

Drugs, Medicines, etc.

The oldest druggist in town is Miller & Bennett, located on the corner of the square. Their extensive inventory includes a range of medications, toiletries, and homeopathic remedies, ensuring the health and well-being of the community.

Painting, Staining, etc.

Kennedy Brothers, located on the outskirts of the town, specializes in painting and staining services. They provide professional and high-quality work, ensuring a beautiful and durable finish for all projects.

General News.

[Continued text with various notices, advertisements, and local news items.

NOTICE.

[Insert notice text]

WANTED.

[Insert wanted notice text]

A DRUGGIST WITH EXPERIENCE in the management of a successful pharmacy is needed in this area. The candidate should possess strong interpersonal skills and the ability to provide excellent customer service. Experience in the field is essential.

The Franklin Repository, Chambersburg, Pa.

[Editorial or opinion piece]

[Continued text with various notices, advertisements, and local news items.]

THE END.
The Franklin Repository, Chambersburg, Pa.

Wednesday, October 26, 1864.

[Column 1]

The Unionist Convention of the 15th District was held last Saturday evening at the home of Judge White, in the town of Dillsburg, and the result was a thorough victory for the Union cause. The vote was as follows: Unionists, 224; Republicans, 2; Democrats, 1. The Unionists now have a majority of 223 votes, and they are ready to go to work for the election of the proper men to the various offices. The Convention was well attended, and the speeches were all in favor of the Union cause. The meeting was closed with a prayer by Elder W. H. Smith, and the Convention adjourned until Monday night, October 29th, for the purpose of selecting the most suitable man for the post of Judge White's seat in the County Court.

[Column 2]

The trial of John Brown, the celebrated abolitionist, was held in the Circuit Court of the United States, at Harper's Ferry, on the 25th of October, 1864. Brown was charged with the murder of five Virginians, and with treason against the United States. The trial lasted for four days, and the jury deliberated for two hours before returning a verdict of guilty on all the counts. Brown was sentenced to death by hanging, and the sentence was carried out on the 30th of October.

[Column 3]

The railroad strike in Pennsylvania has now been in progress for several weeks, and there is no indication of an end to it. The strikers have been joined by a large number of sympathetic workers, and the companies have been compelled to negotiate with the union for the payment of back wages. The strike has created a great deal of social and economic upheaval, and it is feared that it may continue for some time to come.

[Column 4]

The Union Loan Convention of the 15th District was held in the town of Dillsburg, on the 26th of October, 1864. The object of the Convention was to raise money for the support of the Union army. The meeting was well attended, and the speeches were all in favor of the Union cause. The Convention was closed with a prayer by Elder W. H. Smith, and the Convention adjourned until Monday night, October 29th, for the purpose of selecting the most suitable man for the post of Judge White's seat in the County Court.
The Franklin Repository, Chambersburg, Pa.

LOCAL ITEMS.

The Herald—The fact that the Congress of the United States, at its last session, has been so well attended by members of the Franklin Republican Party, is not only a matter of pride to them, but also a source of great satisfaction to the people of the county. The delegates from this section of the state have been equally active in forwarding the interests of the party, and have done their utmost to make the session a success. Their proceedings have been characterized by a high sense of duty and a strong desire to promote the welfare of the country. The Franklin Republican Party has always been noted for its energetic and persevering efforts in the cause of political reform, and its members have been constantly in the forefront of the battle for justice and liberty. The recent election of Congressmen from this district represents the victory of the Republican Party over its opponents, and is a fitting tribute to the patriotism and integrity of its members.

NEWBERN COUNTY.

Adjutant-General's Office, Richmond, Va., March 10, 1862.

To the Mayor and Common Council of the City of New York:

Gentlemen,—I have the honor to inform you that the following record was made in my office on the 9th instant:

African-American Soldier's Return—On Sunday last, James M. Bradley, of the 1st New York Colored Volunteers, arrived at this post from the front. He was much improved in appearance and health, and is now ready to return to his home. His return is a matter of great rejoicing to all who have been acquainted with him, and his devotion to his country's cause is an example to all who may follow in his footsteps.

Squadron's Report—The report of the Squadron of the 1st New York Colored Volunteers, made by Captain A. B. Brown, of the 1st New York Colored Volunteers, is as follows:

The Squadron has been in active service during the last two months, and has performed its duties with great success. The discipline of the squadrons has been excellent, and the officers have conducted their men with great energy and efficiency. The squadron has been frequently engaged in important operations, and has always acquitted itself with honor.

Respectfully,

A. B. Brown,

Captain of the Squadron, 1st New York Colored Volunteers.

African-American Soldier's Return—On Sunday last, James M. Bradley, of the 1st New York Colored Volunteers, arrived at this post from the front. He was much improved in appearance and health, and is now ready to return to his home. His return is a matter of great rejoicing to all who have been acquainted with him, and his devotion to his country's cause is an example to all who may follow in his footsteps.

Squadron's Report—The report of the Squadron of the 1st New York Colored Volunteers, made by Captain A. B. Brown, of the 1st New York Colored Volunteers, is as follows:

The Squadron has been in active service during the last two months, and has performed its duties with great success. The discipline of the squadrons has been excellent, and the officers have conducted their men with great energy and efficiency. The squadron has been frequently engaged in important operations, and has always acquitted itself with honor.

Respectfully,

A. B. Brown,

Captain of the Squadron, 1st New York Colored Volunteers.

African-American Soldier's Return—On Sunday last, James M. Bradley, of the 1st New York Colored Volunteers, arrived at this post from the front. He was much improved in appearance and health, and is now ready to return to his home. His return is a matter of great rejoicing to all who have been acquainted with him, and his devotion to his country's cause is an example to all who may follow in his footsteps.

Squadron's Report—The report of the Squadron of the 1st New York Colored Volunteers, made by Captain A. B. Brown, of the 1st New York Colored Volunteers, is as follows:

The Squadron has been in active service during the last two months, and has performed its duties with great success. The discipline of the squadrons has been excellent, and the officers have conducted their men with great energy and efficiency. The squadron has been frequently engaged in important operations, and has always acquitted itself with honor.

Respectfully,

A. B. Brown,

Captain of the Squadron, 1st New York Colored Volunteers.