THE REPORT FOR 1864.

Henry H. Van Wyck.

THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

Another chapter has been added to the history of the Potomac. A general has been created in the army of the Potomac. Again, it has crossed the river, and is now marching into the interior of the country. The people of the North have been accustomed to see the Potomac as a symbol of the power and strength of the South. But now, as the army moves forward, a new and different picture is presented. The army is not only a symbol of the strength of the Confederacy, but it is also a symbol of the power of the Union.

The movement into Texas has been an exciting event. The people of Texas have been very much interested in the movement, and have done all they could to assist the army. The people of the North have also been very much interested in the movement, and have done all they could to assist the army. The movement has been very successful, and the people of Texas have been very much pleased with the results.

The army is now marching into Texas, and is expected to reach the city of Houston in a few days.
