SUMMARY OF WAR NEWS.

The latest news from the war department bears no report of new battles. The military operations of the Union forces are reported to be progressing rapidly. The enemy's forces are reported to be concentrated in a larger force, and it is feared that they may attempt a renewed attack. The Union forces are well prepared for any eventuality, and the public is assured that they will not be taken by surprise. The situation is critical, but the Union forces are confident of success.

REAL ESTATE, FARMING, &c.

The market for real estate is unusually active, and prices are rising rapidly. The demand for land is due to the increased interest in agriculture, and the desire for investment. The prices of land are expected to continue to rise, and it is advisable for investors to act promptly.

FINANCIAL.

The financial situation is stable, and there is no indication of a panic. The banks are well capitalized, and the currency is ample. The interest rates are moderate, and the banks are functioning normally. The situation is favorable for business, and the public is encouraged to invest wisely.

LEGAL NOTICES.

APPLICATIONS FOR LAND.

Applications for land are being processed promptly. The government is working diligently to fulfill its obligations to the veteran soldiers and their dependents. The applications are being reviewed carefully, and the grants are being made as soon as possible. The public is advised to apply early to avoid any delay.

EMERALD JEWEL.

An emerald jewel of exceptional beauty has been discovered in the diamond mines of South Africa. The jewel is of a green color, and it is expected to fetch a high price when it is sold. The discovery of this jewel is a great event, and it is eagerly awaited by the public.

MILITARY.

The military situation is critical, and the nation is called to arms. The Union forces are determined to defend their country, and they are ready to meet any challenge. The public is encouraged to support the military effort, and to pray for the safety of our soldiers.

1864 "CORTNER'S EXTERMINATORS".

The "Cortner's Exterminators" are a company of soldiers organized for the purpose of exterminating rebels.
