THE GREAT SANITARY FAIR BUILDING.

The Sanitary Fair Building will open on Tuesday, the 14th instant, with an exhibition of the most interesting articles for the comfort and use of the sick and wounded soldiers. The building is situated near the Union Army hospital and is well adapted for the purpose. The Fair will be open every day from 10 A.M. to 6 P.M., and will continue until the 26th of June. The admission will be 10 cents, and children under 10 years of age will be admitted free. The proceeds will be devoted to the relief of the soldiers and sailors of the Union Army.

LATEST ARMY NEWS!

THE ATTACK ON FEDERAL CITY.

The attack on Federal City, or Washington, D.C., was a daring and successful military operation by General Ulysses S. Grant and his troops. The city was captured on April 12, 1865, after a siege of several weeks. The capture of the city marked the end of the Civil War, as the Confederate Army was no longer able to continue fighting.

SHERIDAN'S RAID!

The Sheridan's Raid was a successful military campaign conducted by General Philip Sheridan against the Confederate Army during the American Civil War. The campaign, which took place from March 17 to April 9, 1864, was aimed at disrupting the Confederate supply lines and demoralizing the enemy. The campaign resulted in the capture of several Confederate units and the destruction of a large amount of supplies and equipment.

MOVEMENTS OF GEN. AMERICAN

The movements of Gen. American are of great interest to the Union Army. He has been advancing towards the Confederate lines with a large force of cavalry and infantry, and is expected to make a strong attack on the enemy's position in the next few days.

SUMMARY OF WAR NEWS

General Grant, the Union Commander in Chief, has taken several important steps to strengthen the Union Army. He has increased the size of his forces, improved the supply system, and established a strong line of communication. The Confederate Army is reported to be in a state of disorganization and demoralization, as a result of the Union victories in recent battles.

POLITICAL INTERESTS

The political situation in the United States is becoming increasingly complex. The recent Union victories have led to a strong public demand for peace, but the Confederate States are determined to continue the war until their cause is won. The issue of the future of the Union is now the most important political question of the day.
FRANKLINVILLE.

LOCAL ITEMS.

[Text continues with various local news items.]