Fouth of July in Chambersburg.

A PURIFIED VILLAGE.

The Fourth of July was observed in Chambersburg with much festivity and pomp. The principal event of the day was the grand military parade, which took place in the afternoon. The parade was followed by a grand fireworks display, which added greatly to the gay and festive character of the celebration.

THE REBELS DON'T ADVANCE.

The news from the front is still of little importance. The Federal forces are holding their ground in the lines around Petersburg, and the Confederate forces are still in their trenches. The Federals have not made any attempt to advance, and the Confederates have not made any attempt to retreat.

THE CIVIL WAR.

The Civil War continues to rage with great intensity. The Federals have made several unsuccessful attempts to break through the Confederate lines, but have been repulsed with heavy losses. The Confederates have also been active, and have made several unsuccessful attempts to capture the Federals.

THE WAR IN THE WEST.

The war in the West continues to progress with great rapidity. The Federals have made several successful advances, and have captured several important places. The Confederates have also been active, and have made several successful advances.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

The war in the East continues to rage with great intensity. The Federals have made several successful advances, and have captured several important places. The Confederates have also been active, and have made several successful advances.

THE WAR IN THE SOUTH.

The war in the South continues to progress with great rapidity. The Federals have made several successful advances, and have captured several important places. The Confederates have also been active, and have made several successful advances.

THE WAR IN THE NORTH.

The war in the North continues to rage with great intensity. The Federals have made several successful advances, and have captured several important places. The Confederates have also been active, and have made several successful advances.
LOCAL ITEMS.

Gowrie-Navis Farm—Very hot this week, the corn is ripening rapidly, and the crop is looking very promising. The farmers are busy with their harvest work.

Latest News—The latest news is that there have been five tornadoes in the area, causing minor damage to crops and homes. The local authorities are on high alert for further storms.

State Fair—The annual state fair is scheduled to start next week and will feature various attractions and competitions. Visitors are encouraged to attend.

The Franklin Repository, Chambersburg, Pa.

July 5, 1864.
The Old Flag

A Campaign Paper for the People

LINCIN AND JOHNSON

UNION AND FREEDOM

FOR THE RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE TO SOLDIERS!

The Proprietor of the Repository will be answered on Thursday, July 4th, at the regular time.

The Old Flag:

Portraits of Lincoln and Johnson,

and other interesting pictorial representations on unmounted paper.

Maps of Battles & Battle-Fields.

Terms on Bill of Sale.

Cash in Advance.

10 Caps for $1.00.

25 for $2.00.

50 for $3.00.

100 for $5.00.

Any other number will be furnished.

James H. Rush, Publisher.

1864 - COUNTER-ATTACK.

The counter-attack is in full force now. The enemy is retreating before the Union forces. The Union soldiers are advancing with great energy and determination. The battle is intense and the outcome is uncertain. The Union soldiers are determined to drive the enemy out of their territory.

The Old Flag:

Portraits of Lincoln and Johnson,

and other interesting pictorial representations on unmounted paper.

Maps of Battles & Battle-Fields.

Terms on Bill of Sale.

Cash in Advance.

10 Caps for $1.00.

25 for $2.00.

50 for $3.00.

100 for $5.00.

Any other number will be furnished.

James H. Rush, Publisher.