HON. ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

Abraham Lincoln was born on the 16th of February, 1809, in Kentucky. His early life, like that of most of the great men, was one of hardship and privation. He was the son of a Scotch-Irish farmer, who emigrated from the north of Ireland to the frontier of the United States, and settled on a farm in the wilds of Kentucky. The boy was born in a log cabin, and spent his early years in roughing it with the Indians and in the woods.

Abraham Lincoln was a patient and persevering student, and he acquired a good knowledge of his trade. He was a carpenter and a surveyor, and he was employed on the construction of roads and canals. He was also a farmer, and he was a successful farmer. He was a man of great ability, and he was a man of great energy. He was a man of great patience, and he was a man of great persistence.

Abraham Lincoln was a man of high morals, and he was a man of high principles. He was a man of great courage, and he was a man of great strength. He was a man of great wisdom, and he was a man of great insight. He was a man of great determination, and he was a man of great perseverance.

Abraham Lincoln was a man of great character, and he was a man of great power. He was a man of great influence, and he was a man of great authority. He was a man of great influence, and he was a man of great authority. He was a man of great influence, and he was a man of great authority. He was a man of great influence, and he was a man of great authority. He was a man of great influence, and he was a man of great authority.

Abraham Lincoln was a man of great influence, and he was a man of great authority. He was a man of great influence, and he was a man of great authority. He was a man of great influence, and he was a man of great authority. He was a man of great influence, and he was a man of great authority. He was a man of great influence, and he was a man of great authority.
