ATLANTA FALLEN!

Gen. Hood buried in his retreat!

REBEL GENERAL BRICE KILLED!

1000 CORPS IN ATLANTA!

Two batteries on the Cotton States.

FORT MORGAN SURRENDERED!

400 Prisoners & 60 Guns Captured!

Mobile must soon fall!

Gen. Averell Routing the Rebels in the valley!

Early retreating in Winchester!

Sherrills Preventing the Rebels!

GREAT SEN. HOLD THE WELL NOT RAPID!

ALL GOES WELL!

The troops at Atlanta are said to be in very good condition, and the city is reported to be in the possession of the Federal forces. The peace of the country is far from being disturbed, and the people are cheerful and contented. The telegraph lines are all working well, and the mails are being transmitted in a regular manner.

Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet meeting was held at the White House yesterday, and the President made a speech in which he said: 'The war is not yet over, and the people of the North must continue to sustain the government in every way. We shall not give up until the perfidious rebels have been conquered and made to yield the fruits of their rebellion.' Mr. Lincoln also said that the people of the South should be treated with kindness and humanity, and that no punishment should be inflicted on them except as a last resort.

The Sanitary Commission has been doing excellent work in caring for the sick and wounded soldiers, and the women of the country are doing all they can to assist in this work. The ladies of the Union Army are doing their best to make the soldiers comfortable and contented, and the men are fighting with a will to vindicate the honor of the Union.

The government has taken steps to prevent the capture of the city of Richmond by the Confederates, and the people are looking forward to the day when the city will be free and happy.

The government has also taken steps to provide for the education of the children of the country, and the schools are doing excellent work in training the young people of the land to be good citizens.

The government has also taken steps to improve the agricultural conditions of the country, and the farmers are doing good work in increasing the food supply of the country.

The government has also taken steps to improve the industrial conditions of the country, and the manufacturers are doing good work in increasing the production of the country.

The government has also taken steps to improve the commercial conditions of the country, and the merchants are doing good work in increasing the trade of the country.

The government has also taken steps to improve the political conditions of the country, and the statesmen are doing good work in increasing the strength of the country.

The government has also taken steps to improve the military conditions of the country, and the soldiers are doing good work in increasing the defense of the country.

The government has also taken steps to improve the social conditions of the country, and the people are doing good work in increasing the happiness of the country.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Page Title</th>
<th>Content</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>September 7, 1864</td>
<td>The Franklin-Republican, Chambersburg, Pa.</td>
<td>Important to Farmers...</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>