FRANKLIN REPUBLICAN

LOCAL NEWS

WASHINGTON

[Text continues on the page]
CAPTURE OF WILMINGTON.

Week of Journ. Confederated States' Capital.

700 Rebels & 50 Guns Captured.

Washington, D.C., March 1, 1865.

The following dispatches are from the late General Lee, of the United Confederate States, to the President of the Confederate States:

[Dispatches continue]

FINANCE AND TRADE.

[Article continues]

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

[Advertisements list]

March 1, 1865.

The Franklin Repository, Chambersburg, Pa.

[Article continues]

[Whole page contains various advertisements, notices, and news articles typical of 19th-century American newspapers.]

[Whole page contains various advertisements, notices, and news articles typical of 19th-century American newspapers.]

[Whole page contains various advertisements, notices, and news articles typical of 19th-century American newspapers.]

[Whole page contains various advertisements, notices, and news articles typical of 19th-century American newspapers.]

[Whole page contains various advertisements, notices, and news articles typical of 19th-century American newspapers.]

[Whole page contains various advertisements, notices, and news articles typical of 19th-century American newspapers.]

[Whole page contains various advertisements, notices, and news articles typical of 19th-century American newspapers.]

[Whole page contains various advertisements, notices, and news articles typical of 19th-century American newspapers.]

[Whole page contains various advertisements, notices, and news articles typical of 19th-century American newspapers.]

[Whole page contains various advertisements, notices, and news articles typical of 19th-century American newspapers.]}
| March 1, 1865                      |