The Franklin Repository, Chambersburg, Pa.

April 12th, 1861.

The Boucher Family of the 9th Reg't. are firmly resolved to participate in the present war with the Union. They have bought a new uniform and are ready to go to the front. The Bouchers are among the first to enlist in the 9th Reg't.

---

The First Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company was held on April 12th, 1861. The meeting was attended by all the directors and was conducted in a business-like manner. The officers of the company were elected and the company's business was discussed.

---

The President of the United States, Mr. Lincoln, addressed the meeting of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company on April 12th, 1861. He spoke of the importance of the railroad in the war and of the need for the company to do its part in the war effort.

---

The Boucher Family of the 9th Reg't. have been granted a leave of absence to attend to the business of the family.

---

The First Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company was adjourned at 3:00 PM on April 12th, 1861.

---

The Boucher Family of the 9th Reg't. have been granted a leave of absence to attend to the business of the family.

---

The President of the United States, Mr. Lincoln, addressed the meeting of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company on April 12th, 1861. He spoke of the importance of the railroad in the war and of the need for the company to do its part in the war effort.

---

The Boucher Family of the 9th Reg't. have been granted a leave of absence to attend to the business of the family.

---

The First Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company was adjourned at 3:00 PM on April 12th, 1861.