Miscellaneous. HOW WE TOOK A BOARDER.

Our house is quite a large one, and besides those apartments which we occupy ourselves and those which we dedicate to our guests, there is a very nice little room on the second floor, which we never use and very seldom enter.

One morning, when I happened to feel in a very economical mood, I thought myself that were this room furnished genteelly, we might just as well not take a boarder—there were such numbers of advertisements in the papers for just such places.

Tuesday and Wednesday passed without any answer. Thursday brought a young man belonging to a fine company, who stipulated that the members of his "machine" should be allowed the privilege of meeting in my parlor once a week.

My next applicant was a maiden lady, who desired accommodations for herself, a parrot, a monkey, two poodles, a kitten, and a cabinet of mineralogical specimens.

After these had departed, I declare I was quite out of patience, and almost resolved to give up my notable idea altogether; but just as I had come to this resolution, I heard another ring at the bell.

There was a young gentleman in the parlor—a tall, fair young man, with straight, straw-colored hair, combed back from his forehead with a brush, and a white cravat of ministerial proportions.

of children, and would be happy if I had any of those dear creatures to instruct them in any little accomplishment, such as drawing or music, as an agreeable manner of passing leisure hours.

Very soon after the meal was finished, our boarder, pleading fatigue, retired to his own apartment, and Paalier, John and myself, a little later, set off for a concert which we were desirous of hearing.

"How do you like Mr. Alberts, my dear?" I said to Paalier, as we walked along. "Tolerable," replied Paalier, "he seems to be a very excellent young man—not particularly brilliant, but very worthy and well-mannered."

"Well, it is better to be good than to be brilliant is it not?" I remarked. "But how do you know that Mr. Alberts is not both, my dear John?"

"I am sure I shall be delighted with him," I said. "And we walked together in the most amiable mood."

"I beg your pardon ma'am," said the first man. "I beg your pardon, but is there any gentleman by the name of Soraggin boarding here?"

"I beg your pardon ma'am," said the first man. "I beg your pardon, but is there any gentleman by the name of Soraggin boarding here?"

Mr. Alberts—the amiable, virtuous, pious man—was the thief. It was his particular forte—so the policeman told me—to impose himself upon persons who advertise for boarders.

How to Sustain your Legal Paper. 1.—Lay aside your fears that the Editor will get rich faster than his neighbors.

2.—If the paper agrees with your ways of thinking, subscribe and pay for it, and persuade your neighbors of the same mind to "go and do likewise."

3.—If you have any printing you wish done do not "jew" the editor down to a starvation price, and when he comes to make a purchase of you "spike on the tariff."

4.—Do not run off to the city to get your handbills, labels, cards, &c. printed, because, forsooth you can get a reduction of a few cents in price.

5.—Do not expect the editor to make honorable mention of you or your business every few weeks for nothing.

6.—Do not expect the editor to make honorable mention of you or your business every few weeks for nothing.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET. FOR GOVERNOR. HON. JOHN LETCHER, OF ROCKBRIDGE.

FOR LIBERTY GOVERNOR. ROBERT L. MONTAGUE, OF MIDDLESEX.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL. J. RANDOLPH TUCKER, OF FREDERICK.

Attention Delegates! Be in mind that Wednesday next is the day for the meeting of the Congressional Convention at Harrisonburg.

Letter from the Hon. John M. Botts. The opposition papers are lauding this document as an extinguisher of Hon. John Letcher, and Mr. Botts seems to have entertained the same opinion when he penned it.

Information of the discussions between the opposing candidates for Governor pours in from all quarters, speaking encouragement to democracy, and defeat—overwhelmingly so.

Mr. Botts is too modest by half,—he is yet to be waked up from his sleep, to a sense of his own importance,—he is yet to be told—modest unpretending man—why everybody else has known from the origin of the contest, that he is part and parcel—

He made a speech before it, in which he elaborately and boldly announced all his principles and plans. Whereupon the convention unanimously endorsed the whole speech, thereby making it the speech of each individual member, and of the constituency represented by each.

THE WEATHER.—The mildness of the past few days makes us truly feel that bleak winter has passed away, and genial spring stepped into her shoes.

BRIGADIER GENERAL.—We are pleased to learn that Gov. Wise has appointed our townsman, Col. Wm. H. Haysman, Brigadier General of the 18th Brigade, vice General Douglas B. Saylor, resigned.

CONNECTION.—We have been requested by the Secretary of the Greenville District meeting, to publish the name of Mr. Wm. Rush as a delegate to the Congressional Convention, in the place of Mr. John Bush.

contending for some untenable principle. The Democratic party is now routed, and its lines broken—its forces scattered. Will the Republican party unite with us, in forming a political "holy alliance" on fair and reasonable terms, involving no sacrifice of principle to any party—that we may meet them at Waterloo in 1860, and exterminate them forever.

AGAIN.—In reply to a complaint that I was willing to receive the votes of the Republican party—if there was a State in the Union composed entirely of free negroes, and the constitution gave them a right to vote, I would be much obliged to them to help me to beat the democratic party.

Thus spoke Botts before the Richmond convention, of which he was the leading member—and thereupon, the whole body—bound to reflect the will of their constituents—presumed to feel with them and speak for them—unanimously applauded, and by solemn resolution, unanimously endorsed and adopted every word Botts had uttered.

Read over and digest those words Virginians, and say for yourselves whether the nominees of such a gathering, be they whom they may, can be tolerated on your soil? A coalition with all the odds and ends of the opponents of the democracy—patriotic and holy alliance with Black Republicanism, on fair and honorable terms—to extirpate Democracy forever—a revival of all the horrors of buried know-nothingism, to which Mr. Botts and his shouting and approving Pandemonium are proud to belong.

Opposition Flashes. The Wytheville Edition of the Opposition, has been completely refuted in the last few days. The Richmond Whig of the 21st inst., bears "through a gentleman from Wyth," that a conspiracy had been formed by certain leaders of the Democracy of that place, to gag Goggin on the subject of the Ruffian pamphlet.

It appears, as we understand from the gentleman aforesaid, that previous to the arrival of Goggin and Letcher in the county, threats had been made by the "Imposition" leaders alluded to, to the effect that if Goggin should allude to the Ruffian pamphlet in the course of discussion, that the leaders referred to would make it a personal matter with him!

After discoursing thus at some length, the Whig devoutly "thanks God that the people and press of Virginia are still free," and declares that the latter, so far as he is concerned, shall never be gagged,—that although he stands in some fear of assassination, "the Richmond Whig under our (his) control, shall never be gagged."

All very fine, very determined, but unfortunately for the Whig, the object of its invective, like the battle at Rock Fish Gap, the object of Goggin's eloquence, never existed, nothing of the sort ever happened at Wytheville.

Thus goes another opposition romance; it is really surprising how they will tell tales so susceptible of refutation. Some time ago, the opposition were crowing very lustily over a letter received by one of them from a gentleman formerly a resident of Rockingham, stating that Letcher soon after the Ruffian pamphlet was printed, had handed one to him, complimenting it highly, at the same time, saying this gentleman, giving one to Mr. Algon S. Gray.

Dear Sir.—As I was leaving Lexington this morning on my way to Kentucky, a friend handed me the Richmond "Whig" of yesterday, containing a certificate dated March 1st, 1859, and signed Wm. Miller, which states that "you handed to him and me, at the same time, in Harrisonburg, Dr. Ruffin's pamphlet."

The editorial in which this certificate is embodied says, "Cal. Goggin, who has not been seen on the subject," &c. I do not know why I was not seen on the subject. I have been at Harrisonburg ever since Mr. Goggin was nominated, except four days, until Wednesday night.

Encouraging about the wheat crop.—A gentleman connected with the land Department of the Illinois Central Railroad, whose position brings him in frequent contact with the people along the line of that thoroughfare, informs us that for the last week or two he has made inquiry of every person he has met from the interior of the State as to the state of the growing crop of winter wheat, and almost invariably receives the answer that the crop is in the best possible condition, and that the line of the Central Railroad, and that where a month ago it was supposed that much of the wheat had been "winter killed" farmers are now fully satisfied that their apprehensions were groundless.

A Slave Stolen.—On Sunday near Leesburg, Va., a slave named Sam, belonging to W. H. Gray, deliberately shot and killed Bill, a slave of J. D. Wildman. It appears from a letter in the Washington Star, that Bill formerly paid attention to a colored woman, who, a few months ago, married Sam. The letter, after his marriage, warned Bill to keep out of her company.

Interesting from Europe. Portland, Mar. 23.—The steamer Scythian, with dates from Liverpool to the 9th inst., arrived at Portland to-day. The America arrived out the 8th. A Pacific article in the Monitor has caused considerable rise in the fund in Paris, London and Vienna.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—A Postoffice has been established at Corvallis, Pike's Peak, and M. Snyder, Jr., formerly of Alexandria, Va., appointed Postmaster. There is to be a daily mail service from Leavenworth to Corvallis, the contract for carrying it to be awarded to Ben McCulloch and B. F. Fitchie, the latter formerly of Charlottesville, Va.

MEMPHIS, March 18.—A crevasse occurred on Wednesday night in the bank of the Mississippi river at Tullah, sixty-five miles above Vicksburg, by which the plantation of H. Nick was destroyed. The breach in the bank is increasing, and the adjacent country is being flooded.

Democratic Meeting in Alleghany. At a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democratic parties of Bath and Alleghany, held in Alleghany County on the 12th day of March, 1859, for the purpose of selecting a standard-bearer to represent the two counties in the next Legislature of Virginia. On motion of James B. Terrill, Col. Alexander McClellin, of Bath, was called to the Chair, and Lewis P. Holloway, of Alleghany, was appointed Secretary of the meeting.

The object of the meeting was briefly explained, and Col. Wm. H. Terrill, of Bath, nominated by J. B. Terrill, was unanimously elected the candidate of the democratic party for the two counties.

The following resolutions were reported and unanimously adopted: Resolved,—that it is the sense of the convention convened at this place, that the leading lines of internal improvement now commenced and in course of construction in this State, especially the James River and Kanawha canal, the Va. Central Railroad and the Ohio river, should be completed as soon as practicable.

Resolved,—that we heartily approve the nomination of Col. McClellin, the nominee of this Convention, and earnestly recommend him to the support of the Democratic party of Bath and Alleghany.

Resolved,—that we cordially approve the platform and principles laid down by the Petersburg Convention, and its nominee, the Hon. John Letcher, and consider him in every way worthy the support of the democratic party of the State.

Resolved,—that the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Staunton Vindicator, Valley Star, and that other democratic papers throughout the State be requested to copy.

On motion, the meeting adjourned. ALEX. McCLELLIN, Chm. LEWIS P. HOLLOWAY, Sec'y.

Middlebrook District Meeting. Pursuant to a published notice, a meeting of the Democrats of the 8th Magisterial District, convened on Saturday, 19th inst., at Middlebrook, for the purpose of appointing delegates to meet in Harrisonburg on the 26th of March, 1859.

On motion of Capt. R. M. Firth, Geo. Shuey, Esq., was called to the Chair, and Wm. H. Randolph appointed Secretary.

On motion of Jacob Baylor, Esq., a committee of three was appointed to nominate suitable delegates and alternates. Committee appointed by the Chairman, —Jacob Baylor, Jun. Wilson, and Wm. H. Randolph.

On motion, a copy of the proceedings was ordered to be forwarded to the office of the County papers, with the request that they be published. On motion, the meeting then adjourned.

At a Democratic Senatorial Convention composed of delegates from the counties of Bath, Highland and Rockbridge, held at the Warm Springs, on the 17th inst., on motion of Dr. E. T. Graham, of Rockbridge, Capt. John U. Dickinson was called to the Chair, and Jas. Barbour Terrill, Esq., was appointed Secretary.

On account of the inclemency of the weather, Wm. A. Mann, Esq., of Rockbridge, moved that the Convention adjourn until Tuesday, the 18th of April, with the understanding that the Convention would then go into the nomination of a candidate. The motion having been seconded by James M. Goul, of Rockbridge, the convention adjourned.

Excursion.—Pleasant M. Mask, who murdered a young lady at Holly Springs, Miss., was executed on Friday of last week. There were about 4,000 persons present at the scene. The Mercury says: Although naturally a powerful man in physical strength, he was unable to walk or stand without assistance, and two men supported him from the carriage and while on the scaffold. He had been confined in jail 4 years, which reduced him to a mere child in strength.
