STANTON, VA.
FRIDAY, MARCH 22, 1861.
 We take the following beautiful and eloquent extract from the freedom of the press from the report of the Hon. Senator in Congress. It is a rare gem to be treasured by every citizen who loves liberty and the rights of the people.
 The Northern people have not only been denied the right to read and reflect upon the article, but they have also been denied the right to discuss it. This is a violation of the rights of the people, and it is a violation of the rights of the press.
 We are not to be denied the right to read and reflect upon the article, and we are not to be denied the right to discuss it. This is a violation of the rights of the people, and it is a violation of the rights of the press.

The African Slave Trade—How it is conducted.

There is a company in Havana, Cuba, with a capital of $1,000,000, which is engaged in the African slave trade. This company, by means of an agent, buys the vessels in New York, where they are loaded with slaves and sent to Africa. The slaves are then sold to the company, and they are transported to Cuba. The company then sells the slaves to the plantations in Cuba. This is a very profitable trade, and it is a very cruel trade.

The African slave trade is a very profitable trade, and it is a very cruel trade. The slaves are taken from their homes and sold to the plantations in Cuba. They are then sold to the plantations in Cuba. This is a very profitable trade, and it is a very cruel trade.
