LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

[Paragraphs discussing various topics, possibly related to politics, the war, or social issues.]

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

[Advertisements for various goods and services, typical of late 19th or early 20th century newspapers.]

S. T. CAMPBELL, printing office, corner of Main and Market streets, Frankfort, Ky.

W. C. BROWN, F. B. BURKS.

COMMERCE.

[Columns filled with advertisements, possibly including clothing, furniture, or other consumer goods.]

ELECTION NOTICE.

[Text indicating location and time for an election, common in historical newspapers.]