

One Ointment

W. H. L. L. V. F. EDITOR
PUBLISHED WEEKLY
FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 22, 1864
No. 100 N. 3rd St. Phila. Pa.

Blanton, Va.
At the opening of the Session at Blanton, Virginia, I delivered an address on the subject of the late war, in which I alluded to the fact that the late war was a civil war, and not a foreign war, and that the late war was a war of the people, and not a war of the Government.

A meeting will be held in the Court House, in this place, on Tuesday, the 24th inst., at 10 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing an Association to cooperate with others organized elsewhere, the principal one of which is located in Richmond, for the purpose of supplying the soldiers of the Army of the Potomac with clothing, shoes, and other necessaries.

Organizations of the Reserves.
On Saturday last, the "Reserves" of this county were organized. Four companies were formed, from persons between the ages of 45 and 50, and an Artillery Company, from those between 17 and 19. The following are the officers elected:

FIRST COMPANY.
J. F. Hattie, Captain; John S. Winger, 1st Lieutenant; David W. Coigler, 2d do; Wm. McFall, 3d do.

SECOND COMPANY.
Robt. W. Stevenson, Captain; Wm. Crawford, 1st Lieutenant; J. Wm. Blackford, 2d do; Wm. Morris, 3d do.
