Gen. Rosewell had the honor of being the first to make a public statement...

Another prominent statement of this position was made by a correspondent of one of the Richmond papers...

The Yankee papers have long considered the "outlets" people in the north...

From the Richmond papers we learn that official intelligence has been received that Sherman is at that moment towards the Atlantic coast...

From the army of Gen. Hood we have news, except what we gather from Yankee papers...

Notwithstanding that splendid achievement of Yankee skill that either some of the best and bravest shooting on record...

It is also well known that the army of the Confederacy is now in a state of reorganization...

Contributions to the subject of the North are respectively solicited, and we are confident that the Government...
