STANFORD SPECTATOR AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1846.

dont leave virginia.

We are sorry to see that some of the tumbling republics and to be un-independent and self-supported; and the citizens of the United States are proposed to be elected in the 2d congressional district, by in the state of Virginia. These citizens are uniformly eligible, unless they are

We are informed that the citizens of the state of Virginia are to be divided into the following districts:

1st. The city of Richmond.

2nd. The counties of

3. The counties of

4. The counties of

5. The counties of

6. The counties of

7. The counties of

8. The counties of

9. The counties of

10. The counties of

11. The counties of

12. The counties of

13. The counties of

14. The counties of

15. The counties of

16. The counties of

17. The counties of

18. The counties of

19. The counties of

20. The counties of

WHERE TO PURCHASE THE STANFORD SPECTATOR.

Richmond, December 2, 1846.

To the subscribers of the Stanford Spectator:

We have just received a supply of the Stanford Spectator, which we are pleased to announce

as containing a great variety of interesting and instructive matter. We have been informed by several of our subscribers that they have been

much pleased with the paper, and that they

have found it to be a valuable source of information and amusement. We are therefore convinced that the paper will be as popular now as it has ever been before.

J. B. STANFORD.

January 2, 1847.

To the subscribers of the Stanford Spectator:

We have just received a supply of the Stanford Spectator, which we are pleased to announce

as containing a great variety of interesting and

instructive matter. We have been informed by

several of our subscribers that they have been

much pleased with the paper, and that they

have found it to be a valuable source of information and amusement. We are therefore convinced that the paper will be as popular now as it has ever been before.

J. B. STANFORD.

January 2, 1847.

court reporter for congress.

The editors of the Stanford Spectator are pleased to announce that they have appointed

L. H. BURDET as court reporter for Congress.

Mr. BURDET is well known for his abilities as a reporter, and we have no doubt that he will do

his work in a satisfactory manner.

J. B. STANFORD.

January 2, 1847.

tournament at stanford.

Thursday last, the ladies and gents of the city of Richmond, were invited to a tor-nament at the Stanford Spectator, which was held in the hall of the Spectator. The tor-nament was conducted by Mr. BURDET, and was attended by a large number of ladies and gents. The tourney was opened by Mr. BURDET, who addressed the company on the subject of the tournament. The tourney was then conducted by Mr. BURDET, who directed the play and gave the signal for the commencement of the tourney. The tourney was concluded by Mr. BURDET, who presented a prize to the winner. The tourney was well attended, and was considered a great success.

J. B. STANFORD.

January 2, 1847.

court reporter for congress.

The editors of the Stanford Spectator are

pleased to announce that they have appointed

L. H. BURDET as court reporter for Congress.

Mr. BURDET is well known for his abilities as a

reporter, and we have no doubt that he will do

his work in a satisfactory manner.

J. B. STANFORD.

January 2, 1847.

court reporter for congress.

The editors of the Stanford Spectator are

pleased to announce that they have appointed

L. H. BURDET as court reporter for Congress.

Mr. BURDET is well known for his abilities as a

reporter, and we have no doubt that he will do

his work in a satisfactory manner.

J. B. STANFORD.

January 2, 1847.

court reporter for congress.

The editors of the Stanford Spectator are

pleased to announce that they have appointed

L. H. BURDET as court reporter for Congress.

Mr. BURDET is well known for his abilities as a

reporter, and we have no doubt that he will do

his work in a satisfactory manner.

J. B. STANFORD.

January 2, 1847.
THE NEW YORK HERALD.

THE NEW YORK HERALD.

The New York Herald, a national daily newspaper, published in New York City. It is known for its coverage of local and international news, as well as its position on various political and social issues. The newspaper has been in publication since 1835, and it continues to be a major source of news and commentary in the United States.