STANLEY SPECTATOR AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

STANLEY SPECTATOR AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1863.

Important Address by President.

A large number of Northern men of all classes and descriptions of Southern origin, who have been brought into prominence by the war, are now in the ranks of the Union army, and are serving with distinction. They have shown that the Southern people are not to be trifled with, and that their determination to resist the aggressors shall be unyielding.

A Word to Subscribers.

To those who have paid in Confederate money for subscriptions, we beg to advise them to make the payment in Confederate money, which is now the legal tender.

Crewed Out.

One of the most interesting events of the war was the capture of the CSS Virginia. It was taken by Rear-Admiral D. Gulf, at Fort Monroe, Va. The Virginia was a ram, and was captured without loss of life. The capture was made by Rear-Admiral D. Gulf, who is now in command of the blockading squadron.

President Johnson's Order.

The President has issued an order to the Attorney-General, requiring him to issue a warrant for the arrest of all persons who have been implicated in the late insurrection.

Special Notice.

The President has issued a special notice to the Attorney-General, requiring him to issue a warrant for the arrest of all persons who have been implicated in the late insurrection.

Important Announcement.

The President has issued an important announcement, requiring all persons to report to the proper authorities for the purpose of being tried for their involvement in the late insurrection.

Valuable Real Estate for Sale.

The President has issued a valuable real estate for sale, which is located in the vicinity of Richmond, Va.

New Advertisements.

Washington College, LEXINGTON, Va., GEO. ROBERT E. LEE, President.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

The President has issued an important notice, requiring all persons to report to the proper authorities for the purpose of being tried for their involvement in the late insurrection.

STANLEY SPECTATOR AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1863.

Important Address by President.

A large number of Northern men of all classes and descriptions of Southern origin, who have been brought into prominence by the war, are now in the ranks of the Union army, and are serving with distinction. They have shown that the Southern people are not to be trifled with, and that their determination to resist the aggressors shall be unyielding.

A Word to Subscribers.

To those who have paid in Confederate money for subscriptions, we beg to advise them to make the payment in Confederate money, which is now the legal tender.

Crewed Out.

One of the most interesting events of the war was the capture of the CSS Virginia. It was taken by Rear-Admiral D. Gulf, at Fort Monroe, Va. The Virginia was a ram, and was captured without loss of life. The capture was made by Rear-Admiral D. Gulf, who is now in command of the blockading squadron.

President Johnson's Order.

The President has issued an order to the Attorney-General, requiring him to issue a warrant for the arrest of all persons who have been implicated in the late insurrection.

Special Notice.

The President has issued a special notice to the Attorney-General, requiring him to issue a warrant for the arrest of all persons who have been implicated in the late insurrection.

Important Announcement.

The President has issued an important announcement, requiring all persons to report to the proper authorities for the purpose of being tried for their involvement in the late insurrection.

Valuable Real Estate for Sale.

The President has issued a valuable real estate for sale, which is located in the vicinity of Richmond, Va.

New Advertisements.

Washington College, LEXINGTON, Va., GEO. ROBERT E. LEE, President.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

The President has issued an important notice, requiring all persons to report to the proper authorities for the purpose of being tried for their involvement in the late insurrection.

STANLEY SPECTATOR AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1863.

Important Address by President.

A large number of Northern men of all classes and descriptions of Southern origin, who have been brought into prominence by the war, are now in the ranks of the Union army, and are serving with distinction. They have shown that the Southern people are not to be trifled with, and that their determination to resist the aggressors shall be unyielding.

A Word to Subscribers.

To those who have paid in Confederate money for subscriptions, we beg to advise them to make the payment in Confederate money, which is now the legal tender.

Crewed Out.

One of the most interesting events of the war was the capture of the CSS Virginia. It was taken by Rear-Admiral D. Gulf, at Fort Monroe, Va. The Virginia was a ram, and was captured without loss of life. The capture was made by Rear-Admiral D. Gulf, who is now in command of the blockading squadron.

President Johnson's Order.

The President has issued an order to the Attorney-General, requiring him to issue a warrant for the arrest of all persons who have been implicated in the late insurrection.

Special Notice.

The President has issued a special notice to the Attorney-General, requiring him to issue a warrant for the arrest of all persons who have been implicated in the late insurrection.

Important Announcement.

The President has issued an important announcement, requiring all persons to report to the proper authorities for the purpose of being tried for their involvement in the late insurrection.

Valuable Real Estate for Sale.

The President has issued a valuable real estate for sale, which is located in the vicinity of Richmond, Va.

New Advertisements.

Washington College, LEXINGTON, Va., GEO. ROBERT E. LEE, President.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

The President has issued an important notice, requiring all persons to report to the proper authorities for the purpose of being tried for their involvement in the late insurrection.