To the Editor of the Staunton Spectator.

Sir:—I have just received your paper of Wednesday last, and I am much pleased to find that your paper is increasing in the number of its subscribers.

I have no particular objections to your paper, but I think it would be better if you would print the articles of your contributors in larger type.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

[Signature]

PS. Please let me know if you have any objections to the above remarks.

[Signature]
STUART SPECTATOR AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1860.

COMMITTED.

The siguientes are notices of the Committee on the House of Cong. for the 48th Congress. They have been ordered to report the following bills:

1. A bill to authorize the issue of treasury bonds for the payment of the public debt.

2. A bill to establish a national bank in each state.

3. A bill to provide for the education of the deaf and blind.

4. A bill to establish a national park in the mountains.

5. A bill to authorize the issue of mortgage bonds for the improvement of the public roads.

6. A bill to establish a national university in the capital.

7. A bill to provide for the settlement of the boundary dispute with the Indians.

8. A bill to provide for the establishment of a national library.

The following are notices of the Committee on the Senate of Cong. for the 48th Congress. They have been ordered to report the following bills:

1. A bill to regulate the interior commerce of the United States.

2. A bill to establish a national bank in each state.

3. A bill to provide for the education of the deaf and blind.

4. A bill to establish a national park in the mountains.

5. A bill to provide for the settlement of the boundary dispute with the Indians.

6. A bill to authorized the issue of mortgage bonds for the improvement of the public roads.

7. A bill to provide for the establishment of a national university in the capital.

8. A bill to provide for the education of the deaf and blind.

The following are notices of the Committee on the House of Cong. for the 48th Congress. They have been ordered to report the following bills:

1. A bill to regulate the interior commerce of the United States.

2. A bill to provide for the education of the deaf and blind.

3. A bill to establish a national park in the mountains.

4. A bill to provide for the settlement of the boundary dispute with the Indians.

5. A bill to authorize the issue of mortgage bonds for the improvement of the public roads.

6. A bill to provide for the establishment of a national university in the capital.

7. A bill to provide for the education of the deaf and blind.

8. A bill to establish a national bank in each state.

The following are notices of the Committee on the Senate of Cong. for the 48th Congress. They have been ordered to report the following bills:

1. A bill to regulate the interior commerce of the United States.

2. A bill to authorize the issue of mortgage bonds for the improvement of the public roads.

3. A bill to establish a national park in the mountains.

4. A bill to provide for the settlement of the boundary dispute with the Indians.

5. A bill to provide for the education of the deaf and blind.

6. A bill to provide for the establishment of a national university in the capital.

7. A bill to establish a national bank in each state.

8. A bill to regulate the interior commerce of the United States.

The following are notices of the Committee on the House of Cong. for the 48th Congress. They have been ordered to report the following bills:

1. A bill to establish a national park in the mountains.

2. A bill to provide for the settlement of the boundary dispute with the Indians.

3. A bill to provide for the education of the deaf and blind.

4. A bill to authorize the issue of mortgage bonds for the improvement of the public roads.

5. A bill to provide for the establishment of a national university in the capital.

6. A bill to establish a national bank in each state.

7. A bill to regulate the interior commerce of the United States.

8. A bill to regulate the interior commerce of the United States.