STANTON SPECTATOR.

AUGUSTA COUNTY.

Many peaceable citizens of Augusta County are laboring under the severest privations, and the most melancholy impressions of impending loss. From the end of the war, when the whole community was contented and prosperous, there has been a course of events tending to destroy all sense of security or confidence in the future. This has been accelerated by the timid, vindictive, and mendacious policy of the Federal Government, and the still more debasing practice of the State authorities, both of which have created a despondency that cannot fail to lead to ruin.

MARRIAGES.

Mr. Wm. B. Coates, and Miss D. E. H. Ellis, on the 4th inst., by the Rev. J. B. Coates.

Furniture! Furniture!

The Augusta Savings Bank is still in operation.

Review of the Markets.

We are unable to present more than a very brief summarization of the markets, on account of our press, which prevents our reproduction of the reports of the various markets. The Richmond market for the week, however, may be briefly stated. The market was about the same as usual, with a fair number of cattle and hogs, and a large number of sheep and lambs. The hogs were in fair condition, and sold at about the same price as last week. The sheep and lambs were in good condition, and sold at about the same price as last week.
