LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

Wednesday Morning, January 26, 1869.

VOLUME 12.

NUMBER 31.

AN INTERESTING LETTER.

By Mr. Chappell, prisoner at Forts Computers.

Mr. Chappell, a native of Maine, has been a prisoner at Fort Computers for about twenty years, and served in the war of 1812. He is a very interesting character, and his letters are always of great value. He writes in a style which is both clear and concise, and his views on a variety of subjects are always well founded.

DOUGLAS ELECTION BY REORGANIZATION.

The election of Mr. Douglas to the Senate last week was a great triumph for the organization of the Republican party. He received a majority of 30,000 votes over his opponent, Mr. Blair, and his victory is a clear indication of the growing power of the organization in the West.

TAMMIE ANDERSON'S DEATH.

A touching tribute was paid to Tammy Anderson, the beloved servant of Mr. Douglas, in his speech on the 25th of December last. She was a faithful and devoted servant, and her death has deprived Mr. Douglas of a true friend.

DOUGLAS'S DEATH.

Mr. Douglas died at his home in St. Louis on the 25th of December last. His death was much regretted by all who knew him, and his memory will be preserved by the many friends he made during his lifetime.

THE AMERICAN FARMER.

The American farmer is a valued asset to the country, and his work is essential to the prosperity of the nation. The government should do all in its power to promote the interests of the farmer, and to assist him in his work.

REMINISCENCES OF HARRIET A. L.

By | a. woodward

I was on the banks of the Missouri one day, near the mouth of the Big Blue, when I saw a little girl, about nine years old, standing by the side of the river. She was dressed in old-fashioned clothes, and seemed to be lonely and sad. I approached her, and asked her what she was doing there. She told me that she was looking for her father, who had gone away a long time ago. I felt sorry for her, and offered to help her find him. We searched the riverbanks, and finally found a clue that led us to her home. Her parents were overjoyed to see her, and we parted on the best of terms.

DOES EVERYBODY?

Did you ever go into the presence of a man, and find that he was not as good as you thought he was? Have you ever known a man to be unfaithful to you, and have you ever done it to yourself? Have you ever known a man to be unfaithful to you, and have you ever done it to yourself? Have you ever known a man to be unfaithful to you, and have you ever done it to yourself?

WALKIES & JEWELRY.

WALKIES AND JEWELRY.

By | a. woodward

I was walking through the streets of the city one day, when I saw a man carrying a bundle in his hand. He looked like a poor man, and I asked him what he was carrying. He told me that he was carrying a load of coal, and that he was going to sell it to make some money. I offered to help him, and we walked together. We came to a shop, and the man put the coal down. He then took out a bundle of money and gave it to the shopkeeper. The shopkeeper opened the bundle, and found that it was full of gold pieces. The man was overjoyed, and thanked me for my help. We parted on the best of terms.
