The man is a leader in the community and has been active in various initiatives and organizations, including the Royce Free Library in Florida, the American Legion, and the Daughters of the American Revolution. He is also a member of the Masonic Lodge and has served as a deacon in the church. His contributions have been recognized by various honorary societies and awards. The man continues to be an influential figure in the community, and his legacy is preserved through various memorials and tributes.
VALLEY SPIRIT.

Mrs. TULL'S.