PARTIAL

VALLEY SPIRIT.

The story of the valley is simply that of the struggle for existence. The valleys of the world are all alike in this respect. They are the highways of life, and the highways of the world. They are the places where all the great minds of the world have gathered, and the places where all the great ideas of the world have met. They are the places where all the great achievements of the world have been made, and the places where all the great hopes of the world have been realized. They are the places where all the great dreams of the world have been fulfilled, and the places where all the great visions of the world have been realized. They are the places where all the great passions of the world have been satisfied, and the places where all the great emotions of the world have been realized.

JUDGMENT OF FRIENDS IN HEAVEN.

We are all about the business of heaven.

I am told that the business of heaven is a very serious one. I am told that it is a matter of life and death. I am told that it is a matter of eternal destiny.

The business of heaven is a serious one, and it is one that we must all be about.

The business of heaven is to be saved. The business of heaven is to be reconciled to God. The business of heaven is to be absolved from sin. The business of heaven is to be glorified in Christ.

The business of heaven is to be saved, and it is a matter of eternal destiny.

The business of heaven is to be saved, and it is a matter of eternal destiny. It is a matter of eternal destiny that we should be saved from the wrath of God, and that we should be reconciled to God. It is a matter of eternal destiny that we should be absolved from sin, and that we should be glorified in Christ.

The American people, as a whole, are still in a stormy condition. The large number of them have been excited against the administration, and are determined to resist in some degree, if not in every instance, the attempts of the Federal Government to carry into effect its programs. The Republican party, as a whole, has been denounced by the Federal Government

Bridge of Harpers Ferry

Much as the American people, after observing the efforts of the Government to subdue the insurrection, have been excited against the administration, so has the Government been excited against the American people. But, let us hope, the excitement will soon subside, and the American people will return to their usual tranquility.

From the Kentucky Statesman

The sympathetic efforts of the Government to subdue the insurrection have been made in a manner that has been considered unjust.

Savage, Sept. 21—We left Milam at 5 o'clock (the evening) and reached Harpers Ferry at 6 o'clock the next day. The Government was able to subdue the insurrection in a short time. The Federal Government has been strengthened by the sympathy of the American people, and the Federal Government has been able to subdue the insurrection in a short time. The Federal Government has been strengthened by the sympathy of the American people, and the Federal Government has been able to subdue the insurrection in a short time.

An important event—A peace treaty was concluded between the United States and the Confederate States of America. The treaty provided for the immediate and unconditional surrender of all Confederate forces in the hands of the United States, and the United States was to be allowed to occupy the ports of the Confederacy. The treaty was signed by President Lincoln and the Confederate Commissioners, and was ratified by both governments.

July 4, 1863

The Mount Pleasant (Va.) Journal reports that the Confederate Congress has passed a bill providing for the immediate and unconditional surrender of all Confederate forces in the hands of the United States, and the United States was to be allowed to occupy the ports of the Confederacy. The bill was signed by President Lincoln and the Confederate Commissioners, and was ratified by both governments.
