VALLEY SPIRIT—JUNE 29, 1859.

THE LADIES OF DUMB.

The name is on every lip,
They are the objects of our admiration;
Their looks, their grace, their beauty
Are inscribed by every student writer.

The pride of all the wise,
The pride of all the foolish.

The world is full of these,
And not one of them is dull.

THE IMPORTANCE OF GENIUS.

I have a notion that Mr. M. is very much of a genius.
I have seen him write, and I can tell you that he is a great and powerful writer.

He has the power to make you laugh
And to make you cry.

His words are full of meaning,
And his ideas are full of life.

I have no doubt that he will Achieve great fame.

THE SCIENTIFIC EXPERIMENT.

I have been served with a peculiar and interesting experiment, which I have been requested to describe.

It consists of a chemical compound, which is published to be
magically active.

I have been informed
that when applied to the skin, it will cause a stupendous alteration of character and personality.

I have no idea how it works, but I am inclined to believe that it is merely a placebo.

THE NELSONS.

I have been invited to
lunch with the Nelsons,
who are known for their charitable works.

I am looking forward
to the opportunity to meet them.

THE PIONEERS.

I have been reading
about the pioneers
who settled this land,
and I am impressed
by their courage and
perseverance.

They faced many difficulties, but they never gave up.

I have great respect
for their spirit.

THE LADIES—THE LADIES.

I have been thinking about the ladies in
this community,
and I have come to
the conclusion that
they are the backbone
of this community.

They are always
ready to help,
and they do so
without complaint.

I have great admiration
for them.

Sums in Pennsylvania:

Political Question.

The Pennsylvania question has been discussed in the Pennsylvania Legislature, and has been a matter of great debate. It has been said that all the bills and resolutions passed by the Legislature have been opposed by the members of the Republican party. The Democratic party, on the other hand, has been in favor of the Pennsylvania question. The question of the Pennsylvania question has been referred to the people of the state, and they have voted against the Democrats and for the Republicans.

The Pennsylvania question has been a matter of great importance to the citizens of Pennsylvania. It has been said that the Pennsylvania question is a question of principle, and that it is necessary for the welfare of the state that the people should be convinced of the rightness of the position taken by the Republicans.
