THE VALLEY SPIRIT—JULY 13, 1850.

MEDICAL.

NEW YORK.

A GALLERIST.

FAMILY HOME WASHING MACHINES.

E. B. BUTTON & CO.

BEER.

J. W. MOORE & CO.

G. D. BARTON.

F. E. SMITH.

COMMERCIAL.

COTTON.

RETTERT & ARMER.

S. T. BONHOMME.

MEDICAL.

FAMILY & & JEWELLERY & & REMOVAL.

STAFF & BARRELS.

MERCANTILE.

E. W. COX & CO.

RETTERT & ARMER.

S. T. BONHOMME.

MEDICAL.

COTTON.

RETTERT & ARMER.

S. T. BONHOMME.
VALLEY SPIRIT. JULY 18, 1859.

THE LATE ATTACK IN MEXICO.

President Buchanan has ordered the Secretary of War, Mr. Mallory, to be furnished with a large force of military men and supplies for the purpose of conducting the late war in Mexico. The President has also directed the Secretary of the Interior to be furnished with a large amount of money for the purpose of carrying on the late war in Mexico.

INDIAN DIFFICULTIES.

A correspondent of the St. Louis Star, from Mexico, June 24, states that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

SUMMARY.

The news from St. Louis is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

NEW ORLEANS.

The news from New Orleans is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

The news from the Cape of Good Hope is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

THE PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

The news from the Pacific Telegraph is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

THE EaSTERN TELEGRAPH.

The news from the Eastern Telegraph is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

ADDITIONAL FOREIGN NEWS.

The news from the additional foreign news is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

THE WIDE WORLD.

The news from the Wide World is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

THE PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

The news from the Pacific Telegraph is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

THE EASTERN TELEGRAPH.

The news from the Eastern Telegraph is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

THE WIDE WORLD.

The news from the Wide World is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

THE PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

The news from the Pacific Telegraph is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

THE EASTERN TELEGRAPH.

The news from the Eastern Telegraph is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

THE WIDE WORLD.

The news from the Wide World is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

THE PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

The news from the Pacific Telegraph is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

THE EASTERN TELEGRAPH.

The news from the Eastern Telegraph is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

THE WIDE WORLD.

The news from the Wide World is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

THE PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

The news from the Pacific Telegraph is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

THE EASTERN TELEGRAPH.

The news from the Eastern Telegraph is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

THE WIDE WORLD.

The news from the Wide World is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

THE PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

The news from the Pacific Telegraph is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

THE EASTERN TELEGRAPH.

The news from the Eastern Telegraph is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.

THE WIDE WORLD.

The news from the Wide World is that the late war in Mexico has not been successful. The government has been unable to secure peace with the Indians, and the Indians have continued to attack the government forces. The government has been compelled to retreat, and the Indians have taken possession of the country.