WILL.

S. B. Wilcox & Co.

WILL.

S. B. Wilcox & Co.

THE WRANGLER'S CRISIS.

"When I was a young man,
In the days of our youth,
I used to go out with my horse and my gun,
And shoot at the quail on the mountains.

But now I'm getting old,
The days are growing short,
And I must stay at home and mind my farm,
And work like a man who's got no room to roam.

THE RIGHT OF CHRISTIANS.

"We are all children of God,
And children of God are free,
We have the right to worship as we please,
And practice our faith in every way.

THE MAJORITY:

The majority is right,
For they have the power to decide,
And we must follow their lead,
Or face the consequences that may arise.

WEST.

My dear friend, I've been thinking,
Of the days when we were young,
And the fun we had together,
And the memories we've stored in our mind.

WEST.

But now we're old and gray,
The days are growing dim,
And we must face the reality,
That we must say goodbye to each other's kin.

THE THOUSANDS.

"There are thousands upon thousands,
Of people who need our help,
We must give them a hand,
And show them the path to the land.

THE REASONS.

There are many reasons why we do it,
The love of our country,
The desire to help those in need,
The need to make a difference in the world.

CONVENT AND CONVENT.

The little girl, she came to the convent,
To find peace and harmony,
She was so young and so small,
But her heart was full of joy.

THE METHODS.

The methods used in the convent were so unique,
They taught the children to think and to act,
They showed them the importance of love and kindness,
And how it can change the world.

THE LEARNING.

The learning that took place in the convent was so profound,
It taught the children the value of knowledge,
It showed them the truth about the world,
And how they can make a difference.

WEST.

"There are thousands upon thousands,
Of people who need our help,
We must give them a hand,
And show them the path to the land.

THE THOUSANDS.

"There are thousands upon thousands,
Of people who need our help,
We must give them a hand,
And show them the path to the land.

THE REASONS.

There are many reasons why we do it,
The love of our country,
The desire to help those in need,
The need to make a difference in the world.

THE METHODS.

The methods used in the convent were so unique,
They taught the children to think and to act,
They showed them the importance of love and kindness,
And how it can change the world.

THE LEARNING.

The learning that took place in the convent was so profound,
It taught the children the value of knowledge,
It showed them the truth about the world,
And how they can make a difference.
WASHINGTON, AUGUST 10, 1850.

VALLEY SPIRIT—AUGUST 10, 1850.

I HAVE REFUSED TO FIGHT.

After what at first seemed a prodigious effort to resist, it was finally managed to bring John into line, when he was found standing still, but the effect was not long in coming, for his face was turned away and he was moving slowly down the street. When inquiry was made of him, he said, "I have no quarrel with you." But when asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus."

A family was down the street, and when they saw John, they called to him, "What are you doing there?" He replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"

From the circus, John went to the store. When inquiry was made of the owner of the store, he said, "I have no quarrel with him." When asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"

From the store, John went to the hotel. When inquiry was made of the proprietor of the hotel, he said, "I have no quarrel with him." When asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"

From the hotel, John went to the saloon. When inquiry was made of the proprietor of the saloon, he said, "I have no quarrel with him." When asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"

From the saloon, John went to the opera house. When inquiry was made of the manager of the opera house, he said, "I have no quarrel with him." When asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"

From the opera house, John went to the church. When inquiry was made of the pastor of the church, he said, "I have no quarrel with him." When asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"

From the church, John went to the library. When inquiry was made of the librarian, he said, "I have no quarrel with him." When asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"

From the library, John went to the hospital. When inquiry was made of the medical staff, he said, "I have no quarrel with them." When asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"

From the hospital, John went to the cemetery. When inquiry was made of the caretaker, he said, "I have no quarrel with him." When asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"

From the cemetery, John went to the prison. When inquiry was made of the warden, he said, "I have no quarrel with him." When asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"

From the prison, John went to the public square. When inquiry was made of the mayor, he said, "I have no quarrel with him." When asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"

From the public square, John went to the markets. When inquiry was made of the market owner, he said, "I have no quarrel with him." When asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"

From the markets, John went to the courthouse. When inquiry was made of the judge, he said, "I have no quarrel with him." When asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"

From the courthouse, John went to the marketplace. When inquiry was made of the marketplace owner, he said, "I have no quarrel with him." When asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"

From the marketplace, John went to the sawmill. When inquiry was made of the sawmill owner, he said, "I have no quarrel with him." When asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"

From the sawmill, John went to the brewery. When inquiry was made of the brewer, he said, "I have no quarrel with him." When asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"

From the brewery, John went to the distillery. When inquiry was made of the distiller, he said, "I have no quarrel with him." When asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"

From the distillery, John went to the printing office. When inquiry was made of the printer, he said, "I have no quarrel with him." When asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"

From the printing office, John went to the newspaper office. When inquiry was made of the editor, he said, "I have no quarrel with him." When asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"

From the newspaper office, John went to the circus. When inquiry was made of the owner of the circus, he said, "I have no quarrel with him." When asked what he was doing there, he replied, "I am going to the circus." They asked, "What circus?" He replied, "The circus in the next town." They asked, "What is the name of the circus?" He replied, "It is called the 'Great Western Circus.'"
The New Mexico Election.

The New Mexico election, as stated in the San Francisco Alta, the following results:

Counting has been completed in all counties excepting those in the vicinity of Fort Union on the eastern border of the territory.

3rd Senatorial District. - Oregon: 761; California: 576; New Mexico: 138; Texas: 12; Indiana: 11; Missouri: 6; Illinois: 3; Louisiana: 1; Mississippi: 1. Total votes cast, 1,699.

7th District. - Wisconsin: 344; Illinois: 312; Missouri: 42; Ohio: 9; Tennessee: 7; Kentucky: 6; Louisiana: 4; Indiana: 2; Michigan: 1; Alabama: 1; Pennsylvania: 1. Total votes cast, 762.

10th District. - Vermont: 131; New York: 126; New Jersey: 61; Massachusetts: 59; Pennsylvania: 47; Maine: 43; Rhode Island: 27; Connecticut: 17; Delaware: 13; Maryland: 11; Virginia: 10; North Carolina: 4; South Carolina: 3; Georgia: 2; Kentucky: 1; Indiana: 1. Total votes cast, 587.

11th District. - Maine: 125; Massachusetts: 123; New York: 76; Pennsylvania: 30; Vermont: 27; Connecticut: 17; New Jersey: 16; Delaware: 12; Maryland: 10; Virginia: 9; North Carolina: 8; South Carolina: 2; Georgia: 1; Kentucky: 1. Total votes cast, 478.

The New Mexico delegation, consisting of Messrs. Hale and Slidell, will be taken to Washington on the 15th inst., for the opening of the 36th Congress.
DEVELOPMENT.

The development of Franklin county seems to be as it moves to the Court House, in which the new building has been completed.

In conclusion, we refer our readers to the following.

Rey to McIntosh's Card.

The petition of the late Mr. McIntosh, who died at the recent meeting, has been presented to the public for consideration.

Calling Meeting.

A meeting was held at the home of Mr. McIntosh, and the following resolutions were adopted:

1. That the meeting be adjourned.
2. That the petition be referred to the Committee on Reorganization.

Announcing Convention.

The convention of the county was called to order by the Hon. John A. McIntosh, who presided.

The convention adjourned.

Hon. Richard L. Wright.

The Hon. Richard L. Wright, who has been appointed United States Senator from Franklin county, arrived in town yesterday.

He was greeted with a hearty reception.

Firemen's Festival.

The Firemen's Festival was held on Thursday evening.

The program included a variety of music and speeches, and was well attended.

The financial report for the year ending December 31, 1859, was presented to the convention.

The report showed a substantial increase in the county's revenue.

Resolved:

That the report be referred to the Committee on Finance for further consideration.

The convention adjourned.

VALLEYS REAL ESTATE.

For Sale.

A valuable farm, containing 100 acres, situated on the west side of the river, is now offered for sale at a low price.

The farm includes a well-equipped barn and a large orchard.

Price: $100,000.

Terms: Half in gold, balance in five years.

For Sale by Public Auction.

A valuable farm, containing 200 acres, situated on the east side of the river, is now offered for sale by public auction.

Terms: Cash.

For Sale.

A valuable farm, containing 150 acres, situated on the north side of the river, is now offered for sale at a low price.

The farm includes a large barn and a large orchard.

Price: $150,000.

Terms: Half in gold, balance in six years.

For Sale by Public Auction.

A valuable farm, containing 250 acres, situated on the south side of the river, is now offered for sale by public auction.

Terms: Cash.

For Sale.

A valuable farm, containing 300 acres, situated on the west side of the river, is now offered for sale at a low price.

The farm includes a large barn and a large orchard.

Price: $200,000.

Terms: Half in gold, balance in seven years.

For Sale by Public Auction.

A valuable farm, containing 350 acres, situated on the east side of the river, is now offered for sale by public auction.

Terms: Cash.