CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

VOLUME 13. WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 7, 1859. NUMBER 11.

EXCEPTION OF EX-PRESIDENT.

Our President Pierce, who arrived at the seat of our national government on Tuesday, is a happy, healthy, and prosperous man. The health of Mr. Pierce is well known to all of our readers, and it is well understood that he is perfectly sound in every respect. He has been in perfect health for many years, and is now entirely free from all the ordinary diseases of life. His health is his greatest treasure, and he cherishes it with the greatest care. He is a man of great energy, and is ever ready to work and do his best for the public welfare.

THE PROGRESS OF "THE GLANDER.

The much talked about "Glander," which has been so much talked about, is now in the hands of Dr. A. J. Strong, of the Philadelphia Medical College. He has been carefully examined, and is found to be entirely free from all symptoms of the disease. He is now in perfect health, and will be restored to his former state of perfect health soon.

Bread Upon the Waters

The night was cold and dark and mournful, and the ground was covered with a thin coat of snow, making everything look desolate and dreary. It was the usual scene in the winter. The snow was thick and deep, and the wind was howling through the trees and over the fields, making everything seem cold and lonely. It was a night of silence, with only the sound of the wind and the occasional hoot of an owl. It was a night of sorrow and sadness. But there was a ray of hope in the midst of it all. A small light glowed in the window of a nearby house, and its warm glow reached out and touched the hearts of those who passed by. It was a beacon of hope, a reminder that even in the darkest of times, there is always a chance for new life.

OLYMPIAN'S OILS.

From the portability and convenience with which the Olympian's Oil is carried around, in the presence of the fox hunting party at Washington, D.C., the use of this oil has been adopted by the members of the Republican party as an excellent means of preserving the health of the animals during the winter season. It is a most excellent remedy for all kinds of skin diseases and disorders, and will be found highly efficacious in treating the same.

The Olympian's Oil is a most popular remedy among the members of the Republican party, and is highly recommended by all who have used it. It is a most excellent remedy for all kinds of skin diseases and disorders, and will be found highly efficacious in treating the same.

GREATFUL OF THE RUMOR.

The Republican party, in its regular meeting held in this city, on the 6th instant, adopted the following resolution:

"That the President of the United States be and is hereby requested to call together the Congress of the United States, for the purpose of enacting laws for the better protection of the interests of the people of the United States, and for the suppression of lawlessness and violence in all parts of the country."

The resolution was adopted by a large majority, and was hailed with universal approbation by the members of the Republican party. It is expected that the resolution will be acted upon by the President and the Congress, and that steps will be taken to put an end to the lawlessness and violence that have been so prevalent in the country.
