LETTER FROM SALT LAKE CITY.

Mr. Editor: Aug 18, 1859.

Events are rapidly setting up the political line of the people of this Territory, and the views of their future interests. On my way here, I have seen many and great changes. The popular mind has been stirred up, and the result is, that the people are now looking to the future with hope and confidence.

April 13, 1859.

The new capital of the Territory is located near the center of the State, and is expected to be a great political and commercial center. The government is now in the hands of the people, and the people are determined to have it.

WASHINGTON, September 13, 1859.

The President has issued a Proclamation declaring the Territory of Utah a part of the United States. The proclamation is expected to be a great political event, and is likely to be a great political and commercial center.

The Best Presidency.

We begin by saying that we think it is of reclaiming principles and sound law that the party convention in the Pennsylvania State Convention, and that the Constitution and the Union. The last name is in the interest of the Union. The Constitution and the Union.

The New Place of Know Nothingness.

It is surprising to see how wonderfully the Know Nothing movement has spread. It is surprising to know how many of these movements have been started in Pennsylvania. We are not aware of any that have been started in Pennsylvania. We are not aware of any that have been started in Pennsylvania.

The Reply to O Douglas.

According to opinion we lay before our readers, the Know Nothing movement has taken a very active part in the recent election. The Know Nothing movement has taken a very active part in the recent election. The Know Nothing movement has taken a very active part in the recent election.

COUNTY COMMITTEE.

J. W. SAMPSON, Chairman.

The Next Governor.

We have heard the names of several candidates for the Governorship, and one of them, who is to be a candidate, is Judge Hill. He is well known to the friends of the party, and is now in the full vigor of his strength. We are informed that he is well prepared to meet his opponents, and is likely to win the nomination. We believe that he is the most likely candidate for the office, and that he will be successful.

The Committee.

The Committee of the County Democratic Committee met at the courthouse on this day, for the purpose of discharging the business of the day.
