VALLEY SPIRIT—OCTOBER 26, 39.

FOR PRESIDENT,

JEREMIAH S. BLACK.

The Terry and Redfield Case.

We fear that has been a year since the Terry and Redfield Case was first brought into notice, and with the advent of the new year, we may hope that it will be brought to a close. The matter was first brought to the attention of the people of California and the country at large in the autumn of 1850, and since that time it has been the subject of much discussion, and has drawn the attention of the public to the question of the rights of those who have been subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

The case is one of great importance, and it is probable that it will be brought to a decision in the Supreme Court of the United States, and that the decision will be of great importance to the country.
