VALLEY SPIRIT—NOVEMBER 9, '59.

Valencia, Pa.

Valencia Daily.

The Hon. Lewis Con, Secretary of Pennsylvania, has been in Washington recently, and was on his way home from the capital, where he has spent several days in the interests of his State and the nation. While in Washington, he had an opportunity to see many of the important political and social events that have occurred in that city during the past few weeks. He is one of the ablest and most respected members of the Pennsylvania legislature, and is known for his intelligent and effective speeches in the House of Representatives.

The Democratic National Committee has appointed a committee to investigate the charges made by the Republican National Committee against the nomination of the Democratic candidates for President and Vice-President. The committee will be composed of members of the Democratic Party from different parts of the country, and will be under the direction of the Democratic National Committee.

The Democratic Convention will meet in St. Louis, Missouri, on the 4th of June, and will adopt the platform and choose the candidates for the presidency and vice-presidential. The convention will be held in the city of St. Louis, and will be attended by a large number of delegates from all parts of the country.

The purpose of the convention is to select the candidates for the presidency and vice-presidential, and to adopt a platform which will express the views of the Democratic Party on the important issues of the day. The convention will be a meeting of the Democratic Party, and will be attended by a large number of delegates from all parts of the country.
Valley Spirit—November 9, '59.

Local News.

Forty Years Ago.—In connection with the 50th anniversary of the "Skirron's Review," the old paper was recently brought to the attention of the public. A summary of the paper's history is as follows:

1809—First issue of the "Skirron's Review" published.

1819—The paper changed its name to "The Valley Spirit." It was edited by John Skirron, who served as editor for many years.

1849—The paper merged with the "Morning Call" and became the "Valley Spirit Call."

1869—The paper changed its name back to "The Valley Spirit."

1889—The paper merged with the "Evening News" and became the "Valley Spirit News."

1909—The paper celebrated its 50th anniversary with a special issue.

The paper continued to serve the community until 1919, when it was closed due to financial difficulties.

A Police Statement.—We observed the following announcements in the "Skirron's Review":

"Wanted: A Dog.—Lost in the neighborhood of the Market House." (Announced in 1819.)

"Wanted: A Horse.—Stolen from the stable of Mr. John Smith." (Announced in 1839.)

"Wanted: A Gun.—Stolen from the residence of Mr. Jane Brown." (Announced in 1859.)

We also observed the following announcements in the "Valley Spirit Call":

"Wanted: A Man.—Missing from the town of Skirron." (Announced in 1849.)

"Wanted: A Woman.—Missing from the town of Skirron." (Announced in 1869.)

"Wanted: A Child.—Lost in the neighborhood of the Market House." (Announced in 1889.)

We also observed the following announcements in the "Valley Spirit News":

"Wanted: A Car.—Stolen from the garage of Mr. John Smith." (Announced in 1909.)

"Wanted: A Suit.—Stolen from the store of Mr. Jane Brown." (Announced in 1919.)

"Wanted: A Watch.—Stolen from the residence of Mr. John Smith." (Announced in 1929.)

We also observed the following announcements in the "Valley Spirit Call":

"Wanted: A Dog.—Lost in the neighborhood of the Market House." (Announced in 1949.)

"Wanted: A Horse.—Stolen from the stable of Mr. John Smith." (Announced in 1969.)

"Wanted: A Gun.—Stolen from the residence of Mr. Jane Brown." (Announced in 1989.)

We also observed the following announcements in the "Valley Spirit News":

"Wanted: A Man.—Missing from the town of Skirron." (Announced in 1999.)

"Wanted: A Woman.—Missing from the town of Skirron." (Announced in 2019.)

"Wanted: A Child.—Lost in the neighborhood of the Market House." (Announced in 2029.)

Finally, we observed the following announcements in the "Valley Spirit Call":

"Wanted: A Car.—Stolen from the garage of Mr. John Smith." (Announced in 2049.)

"Wanted: A Suit.—Stolen from the store of Mr. Jane Brown." (Announced in 2069.)

"Wanted: A Watch.—Stolen from the residence of Mr. John Smith." (Announced in 2089.)