VALLEY SPIRIT.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 7, 1860.

VOLUME 12.

PHILADELPHIA TO BURLINGTON, N.J.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON DEC. 4.

The President has appointed Mr. H. R. Jurgens to fill the place of Mr. C. M. Barron, who has resigned his seat in the House of Representatives. His appointment is expected to be confirmed by the Senate. The President has also appointed Mr. W. J. W. Thompson to fill the place of Mr. R. B. Cushing, who has also resigned his seat. His appointment is also expected to be confirmed by the Senate.

G. H. S.,

N. Y.

The President has issued a proclamation declaring that the whole of the territory north of the 36th parallel of latitude shall be free soil. This proclamation is widely expected to have a great influence on the coming presidential election.

D. H. S.,

N. Y.

The President has directed the Postmaster General to issue a circular to all postmasters, reminding them of the importance of having their offices well supplied with postage stamps. The circular also reminds them to see that all mail is properly handled and delivered.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON DEC. 4.

The President has issued a proclamation declaring that the whole of the territory north of the 36th parallel of latitude shall be free soil. This proclamation is widely expected to have a great influence on the coming presidential election.

D. H. S.,

N. Y.

The President has directed the Postmaster General to issue a circular to all postmasters, reminding them of the importance of having their offices well supplied with postage stamps. The circular also reminds them to see that all mail is properly handled and delivered.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON DEC. 4.

The President has issued a proclamation declaring that the whole of the territory north of the 36th parallel of latitude shall be free soil. This proclamation is widely expected to have a great influence on the coming presidential election.

D. H. S.,

N. Y.

The President has directed the Postmaster General to issue a circular to all postmasters, reminding them of the importance of having their offices well supplied with postage stamps. The circular also reminds them to see that all mail is properly handled and delivered.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON DEC. 4.

The President has issued a proclamation declaring that the whole of the territory north of the 36th parallel of latitude shall be free soil. This proclamation is widely expected to have a great influence on the coming presidential election.

D. H. S.,

N. Y.

The President has directed the Postmaster General to issue a circular to all postmasters, reminding them of the importance of having their offices well supplied with postage stamps. The circular also reminds them to see that all mail is properly handled and delivered.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON DEC. 4.

The President has issued a proclamation declaring that the whole of the territory north of the 36th parallel of latitude shall be free soil. This proclamation is widely expected to have a great influence on the coming presidential election.

D. H. S.,

N. Y.

The President has directed the Postmaster General to issue a circular to all postmasters, reminding them of the importance of having their offices well supplied with postage stamps. The circular also reminds them to see that all mail is properly handled and delivered.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON DEC. 4.

The President has issued a proclamation declaring that the whole of the territory north of the 36th parallel of latitude shall be free soil. This proclamation is widely expected to have a great influence on the coming presidential election.

D. H. S.,

N. Y.

The President has directed the Postmaster General to issue a circular to all postmasters, reminding them of the importance of having their offices well supplied with postage stamps. The circular also reminds them to see that all mail is properly handled and delivered.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON DEC. 4.

The President has issued a proclamation declaring that the whole of the territory north of the 36th parallel of latitude shall be free soil. This proclamation is widely expected to have a great influence on the coming presidential election.

D. H. S.,

N. Y.

The President has directed the Postmaster General to issue a circular to all postmasters, reminding them of the importance of having their offices well supplied with postage stamps. The circular also reminds them to see that all mail is properly handled and delivered.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON DEC. 4.

The President has issued a proclamation declaring that the whole of the territory north of the 36th parallel of latitude shall be free soil. This proclamation is widely expected to have a great influence on the coming presidential election.

D. H. S.,

N. Y.

The President has directed the Postmaster General to issue a circular to all postmasters, reminding them of the importance of having their offices well supplied with postage stamps. The circular also reminds them to see that all mail is properly handled and delivered.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON DEC. 4.

The President has issued a proclamation declaring that the whole of the territory north of the 36th parallel of latitude shall be free soil. This proclamation is widely expected to have a great influence on the coming presidential election.

D. H. S.,

N. Y.

The President has directed the Postmaster General to issue a circular to all postmasters, reminding them of the importance of having their offices well supplied with postage stamps. The circular also reminds them to see that all mail is properly handled and delivered.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON DEC. 4.

The President has issued a proclamation declaring that the whole of the territory north of the 36th parallel of latitude shall be free soil. This proclamation is widely expected to have a great influence on the coming presidential election.

D. H. S.,

N. Y.

The President has directed the Postmaster General to issue a circular to all postmasters, reminding them of the importance of having their offices well supplied with postage stamps. The circular also reminds them to see that all mail is properly handled and delivered.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON DEC. 4.

The President has issued a proclamation declaring that the whole of the territory north of the 36th parallel of latitude shall be free soil. This proclamation is widely expected to have a great influence on the coming presidential election.

D. H. S.,

N. Y.

The President has directed the Postmaster General to issue a circular to all postmasters, reminding them of the importance of having their offices well supplied with postage stamps. The circular also reminds them to see that all mail is properly handled and delivered.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON DEC. 4.

The President has issued a proclamation declaring that the whole of the territory north of the 36th parallel of latitude shall be free soil. This proclamation is widely expected to have a great influence on the coming presidential election.

D. H. S.,

N. Y.

The President has directed the Postmaster General to issue a circular to all postmasters, reminding them of the importance of having their offices well supplied with postage stamps. The circular also reminds them to see that all mail is properly handled and delivered.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON DEC. 4.

The President has issued a proclamation declaring that the whole of the territory north of the 36th parallel of latitude shall be free soil. This proclamation is widely expected to have a great influence on the coming presidential election.

D. H. S.,

N. Y.

The President has directed the Postmaster General to issue a circular to all postmasters, reminding them of the importance of having their offices well supplied with postage stamps. The circular also reminds them to see that all mail is properly handled and delivered.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON DEC. 4.

The President has issued a proclamation declaring that the whole of the territory north of the 36th parallel of latitude shall be free soil. This proclamation is widely expected to have a great influence on the coming presidential election.

D. H. S.,

N. Y.

The President has directed the Postmaster General to issue a circular to all postmasters, reminding them of the importance of having their offices well supplied with postage stamps. The circular also reminds them to see that all mail is properly handled and delivered.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON DEC. 4.

The President has issued a proclamation declaring that the whole of the territory north of the 36th parallel of latitude shall be free soil. This proclamation is widely expected to have a great influence on the coming presidential election.

D. H. S.,

N. Y.

The President has directed the Postmaster General to issue a circular to all postmasters, reminding them of the importance of having their offices well supplied with postage stamps. The circular also reminds them to see that all mail is properly handled and delivered.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON DEC. 4.

The President has issued a proclamation declaring that the whole of the territory north of the 36th parallel of latitude shall be free soil. This proclamation is widely expected to have a great influence on the coming presidential election.

D. H. S.,

N. Y.

The President has directed the Postmaster General to issue a circular to all postmasters, reminding them of the importance of having their offices well supplied with postage stamps. The circular also reminds them to see that all mail is properly handled and delivered.

From Washington.
CIVIL DUTIES.

The following is a true account of the election for County Commissioner in the 1st District in the County of Los Angeles.

J. F. BROWN, county commissioner, has given the following statement in regard to the election in the 1st District.

"Mr. Brown, the county commissioner, has given the following statement in regard to the election in the 1st District. The election is a close one, and the result is not yet known. The county commissioner has been acting in a fair and impartial manner, and has given the voters the opportunity of casting their ballots in good faith. The result will be known in a few days, and the county commissioner will then announce the result in a public meeting."
Admiration for Old Brown.

The Republicans in this State are united in arousing the people to admire the memory of Old Brown, and to regard his deeds as models of the heroism of the past. His name is still fresh in the minds of the people, and his influence is still felt in the State. The Republicans believe that Old Brown's name will ever be held in high esteem, and that his memory will be preserved for future generations.

The Richmond Enquirer.

The Richmond Enquirer is a newspaper published in Richmond, Virginia. It is known for its support of the Confederacy during the American Civil War. The newspaper was founded in 1861 and was one of the few newspapers in the South that continued to publish during the war. It was owned by James M. Mason, a Confederate States Senator, and Joseph B. Eggleston, a Confederate States Representative.

Heating of Congress.

The first session of the Thirty-first Congress was held in Washington, D.C., on December 2, 1849. The session was marked by the heated debates between the Whig and Democratic parties over the issue of slavery. The Whigs were against the expansion of slavery into the territories, while the Democrats were in favor of it. The debates were so intense that they often turned into physical altercations. The session ended with the passage of the Compromise of 1850, which temporarily ended the crisis.

The Elevation ofॐ. 8.

The elevation of Tombstone, Arizona, to the status of a city was a significant event in the history of the American West. Tombstone was a mining town located in the Arizona Territory. It was known for its wild and lawless ways, and it was home to many famous outlaws, including Billy the Kid and Jesse James. The elevation of Tombstone to the status of a city was a sign of the town's growing importance and its role as a hub of commerce and industry.

The Elevation of Tombstone.

The elevation of Tombstone, Arizona, to the status of a city was a significant event in the history of the American West. Tombstone was a mining town located in the Arizona Territory. It was known for its wild and lawless ways, and it was home to many famous outlaws, including Billy the Kid and Jesse James. The elevation of Tombstone to the status of a city was a sign of the town's growing importance and its role as a hub of commerce and industry.

The elevation of Tombstone, Arizona, to the status of a city was a significant event in the history of the American West. Tombstone was a mining town located in the Arizona Territory. It was known for its wild and lawless ways, and it was home to many famous outlaws, including Billy the Kid and Jesse James. The elevation of Tombstone to the status of a city was a sign of the town's growing importance and its role as a hub of commerce and industry.

The elevation of Tombstone, Arizona, to the status of a city was a significant event in the history of the American West. Tombstone was a mining town located in the Arizona Territory. It was known for its wild and lawless ways, and it was home to many famous outlaws, including Billy the Kid and Jesse James. The elevation of Tombstone to the status of a city was a sign of the town's growing importance and its role as a hub of commerce and industry.

The elevation of Tombstone, Arizona, to the status of a city was a significant event in the history of the American West. Tombstone was a mining town located in the Arizona Territory. It was known for its wild and lawless ways, and it was home to many famous outlaws, including Billy the Kid and Jesse James. The elevation of Tombstone to the status of a city was a sign of the town's growing importance and its role as a hub of commerce and industry.

The elevation of Tombstone, Arizona, to the status of a city was a significant event in the history of the American West. Tombstone was a mining town located in the Arizona Territory. It was known for its wild and lawless ways, and it was home to many famous outlaws, including Billy the Kid and Jesse James. The elevation of Tombstone to the status of a city was a sign of the town's growing importance and its role as a hub of commerce and industry.

The elevation of Tombstone, Arizona, to the status of a city was a significant event in the history of the American West. Tombstone was a mining town located in the Arizona Territory. It was known for its wild and lawless ways, and it was home to many famous outlaws, including Billy the Kid and Jesse James. The elevation of Tombstone to the status of a city was a sign of the town's growing importance and its role as a hub of commerce and industry.

The elevation of Tombstone, Arizona, to the status of a city was a significant event in the history of the American West. Tombstone was a mining town located in the Arizona Territory. It was known for its wild and lawless ways, and it was home to many famous outlaws, including Billy the Kid and Jesse James. The elevation of Tombstone to the status of a city was a sign of the town's growing importance and its role as a hub of commerce and industry.

The elevation of Tombstone, Arizona, to the status of a city was a significant event in the history of the American West. Tombstone was a mining town located in the Arizona Territory. It was known for its wild and lawless ways, and it was home to many famous outlaws, including Billy the Kid and Jesse James. The elevation of Tombstone to the status of a city was a sign of the town's growing importance and its role as a hub of commerce and industry.

The elevation of Tombstone, Arizona, to the status of a city was a significant event in the history of the American West. Tombstone was a mining town located in the Arizona Territory. It was known for its wild and lawless ways, and it was home to many famous outlaws, including Billy the Kid and Jesse James. The elevation of Tombstone to the status of a city was a sign of the town's growing importance and its role as a hub of commerce and industry.

The elevation of Tombstone, Arizona, to the status of a city was a significant event in the history of the American West. Tombstone was a mining town located in the Arizona Territory. It was known for its wild and lawless ways, and it was home to many famous outlaws, including Billy the Kid and Jesse James. The elevation of Tombstone to the status of a city was a sign of the town's growing importance and its role as a hub of commerce and industry.

The elevation of Tombstone, Arizona, to the status of a city was a significant event in the history of the American West. Tombstone was a mining town located in the Arizona Territory. It was known for its wild and lawless ways, and it was home to many famous outlaws, including Billy the Kid and Jesse James. The elevation of Tombstone to the status of a city was a sign of the town's growing importance and its role as a hub of commerce and industry.

The elevation of Tombstone, Arizona, to the status of a city was a significant event in the history of the American West. Tombstone was a mining town located in the Arizona Territory. It was known for its wild and lawless ways, and it was home to many famous outlaws, including Billy the Kid and Jesse James. The elevation of Tombstone to the status of a city was a sign of the town's growing importance and its role as a hub of commerce and industry.