VALLEY SPIRIT.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

VOLUME 15. WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 26, 1800. NUMBER 36.

Thrilling Elegance.

The following address was made to the ladies of the city of New York by Mr. McClellan, in a speech on the 4th of July, 1800, at the Union Hall, in New York. The address was read in a most eloquent manner, and was received with great applause.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND.

The Union of the Crowns.

The Union of the Crowns has been the subject of much discussion between France and England. It is said, in fact, that the agreement was concluded, and that the union will be complete. The treaty will be signed in London, and the two countries will be united in a common government.

Olive and the Cedar.

Our distinguished Secretary of the Interior, Mr. Calhoun, delivered an address before the Agricultural Society of Richmond, Virginia, from which we extract the following extract:

The President is both of the most respectable men in the Union. A country man, with the exception of a few days in the city, he is always at the head of the community. Each of his acts is calculated, and every step he takes is marked by wisdom and prudence. His views are broad, and his plans are grand, and the independence of the people is not to be questioned. He is a friend to all who love liberty, and a foe to all who seek to subvert it. In his speeches, he never deviates from the truth, and in his actions, he always acts in accordance with his principles. His word is his bond, and his promise is his duty. He is a man of integrity, and a friend to the people. He is a man of honor, and a friend to the Constitution. He is a man of principle, and a friend to the Union.

The Olive is the symbol of peace, and the Cedar is the symbol of strength. The Olive is the symbol of peace, and the Cedar is the symbol of strength. The Olive is the symbol of peace, and the Cedar is the symbol of strength. The Olive is the symbol of peace, and the Cedar is the symbol of strength. The Olive is the symbol of peace, and the Cedar is the symbol of strength. The Olive is the symbol of peace, and the Cedar is the symbol of strength. The Olive is the symbol of peace, and the Cedar is the symbol of strength. The Olive is the symbol of peace, and the Cedar is the symbol of strength. The Olive is the symbol of peace, and the Cedar is the symbol of strength. The Olive is the symbol of peace, and the Cedar is the symbol of strength. The Olive is the symbol of peace, and the Cedar is the symbol of strength. The Olive is the symbol of peace, and the Cedar is the symbol of strength. The Olive is the symbol of peace, and the Cedar is the symbol of strength.

Exhilirating Elegance.

The following address was made to the ladies of the city of New York by Mr. McClellan, in a speech on the 4th of July, 1800, at the Union Hall, in New York. The address was read in a most eloquent manner, and was received with great applause.

France and England.

The Union of the Crowns.

The Union of the Crowns has been the subject of much discussion between France and England. It is said, in fact, that the agreement was concluded, and that the union will be complete. The treaty will be signed in London, and the two countries will be united in a common government.

Olive and the Cedar.

Our distinguished Secretary of the Interior, Mr. Calhoun, delivered an address before the Agricultural Society of Richmond, Virginia, from which we extract the following extract:
VALLEY SPIRIT—FEBRUARY 29, '60.

Valley Spirit.

Chambersburg, Pa., February 28, 1860.

A. M. Cooper, Editor.

For Governor.

JEREMIAH S. BLACK.

The John Brown Party.

The Republican party is now a party of the reaction, a party of the restoration of the old order of things. The Republicans have been appointed judges in the case of the restoration of the old order of things. The Republican party is now a party of the reaction, a party of the restoration of the old order of things. The Republicans have been appointed judges in the case of the restoration of the old order of things. The Republican party is now a party of the reaction, a party of the restoration of the old order of things. The Republican party is now a party of the reaction, a party of the restoration of the old order of things. The Republican party is now a party of the reaction, a party of the restoration of the old order of things. The Republican party is now a party of the reaction, a party of the restoration of the old order of things. The Republican party is now a party of the reaction, a party of the restoration of the old order of things. The Republican party is now a party of the reaction, a party of the restoration of the old order of things. The Republican party is now a party of the reaction, a party of the restoration of the old order of things. The Republican party is now a party of the reaction, a party of the restoration of the old order of things. The Republican party is now a party of the reaction, a party of the restoration of the old order of things. The Republican party is now a party of the reaction, a party of the restoration of the old order of things. The Republican party is now a party of the reaction, a party of the restoration of the old order of things. The Republican party is now a party of the reaction, a party of the restoration of the old order of things. The Republican party is now a party of the reaction, a party of the restoration of the old order of things. The Republican party is now a party of the reaction, a party of the restoration of the old order of things. The Republican party is now a party of the reaction, a party of the restoration of the old order of things.
VALLEY SPIRIT—FEBRUARY 29, '60.

LOCAL NEWS.

Election of Directors of Board of Trade.

A number of the directors of the Board of Trade have resigned, and it is expected that new elections will be held shortly. The present board has, however, made arrangements for the continuation of its work during the absence of the officers, and the business of the board is being conducted in an efficient manner.

JEWELLED RING.

A very fine specimen of a Diamond Ring has been presented to the Board of Trade by Mr. A. E. Smith. It is a beautiful example of the skill of our local jewelers, and is calculated to attract notice. The ring is set with a large diamond, and is surrounded by an exquisite design of gold.

CONCISE REPORT.

The Board of Trade has received a report from the superintendent of the street railway, stating that the company is making good progress in the construction of the new line. The work is proceeding smoothly, and the completion of the line is expected to be accomplished within the time fixed.

MARRIAGE.

Mr. Geo. H. Smith and Miss Grace E. Green were married on Saturday last, in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends. The bridegroom is a member of the Board of Trade, and the bride is the sister of one of the directors. The wedding took place in the town hall, and the ceremony was performed by the mayor.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

A very interesting advertisement has appeared in the Valley Spirit, which is calculated to attract the attention of the public. It is an advertisement for the sale of a new and improved brand of cigars, and is calculated to appeal to the taste of those who are fond of smoking.

MARKET REPORT.

The market report of the Valley Spirit for the week ending February 23rd, shows a favorable condition of the market. The price of cattle has advanced, and there is a demand for the produce of the farms. The report is in accordance with the general opinion that the market is improving. The report is as follows:

W. R. W. B. A.

The W. R. W. B. A. has been active in recent weeks, and the members have shown a keen interest in the improvement of the community. The association has held several meetings, and has made arrangements for the celebration of various events.

GARDEN SEEDS.

The garden seeds are now in great demand, and the list of seeds is extensive. The present season is expected to be a good one, and the gardeners are preparing for a successful season. The seeds are of the finest quality, and are guaranteed to give satisfaction.

VAGUANOS.

The vaganous have been very active in recent weeks, and the authorities are taking steps to deal with them. The vaganous are considered dangerous characters, and efforts are being made to prevent their presence in the community. The authorities have issued a warrant for the arrest of several of the vaganous, and they are expected to be brought to trial shortly.

WAYWORTH BALLOT.

A ballot on the wayworth question will be held in the town on the 25th of next month. The question is expected to be a close one, and the authorities are preparing for a lively campaign. The ballots will be distributed on the 21st of next month.

BLACK & LADDIE.

A meeting of the Black & Laddie will be held in the town hall on the 25th of next month. The Black & Laddie are a social club, and the meeting will be attended by a large number of members. The business of the club will be transacted, and the officers will be elected.

PUBLIC LIBRARY.

A subscription is being collected for the public library, and the town council has agreed to contribute a large sum of money towards the purchase of books. The subscription is expected to be a success, and the council is confident that the library will be a valuable asset to the community.

WASHINGTON.

The Council of the United States has been in session for several days, and the members have been actively engaged in discussing various questions. The council is expected to make important decisions, and the public will be kept informed of the proceedings.

TUNNEL TUNNEL.

The tunnel tunnel is being constructed, and the work is proceeding smoothly. The tunnel is expected to be completed within the time fixed, and the projection is that it will be a valuable asset to the community.

THE REVOLUTIONARY TUNNEL.

The revolutionary tunnel is being constructed, and the work is proceeding smoothly. The tunnel is expected to be completed within the time fixed, and the projection is that it will be a valuable asset to the community.