LOCAL NEWS.

VALLEY SPIRIT.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

VOLUME 14.

WEDNESDAY MORNING SEPTEMBER 19, 1860.

NUMBER 18.

Washington, D.C.

The news from Washington is that the House of Representatives has passed the tariff bill. The Senate has also passed it, and it now goes to the President for his signature. The bill imposes a high duty on imported goods, with the exception of perishable goods, such as rice and wheat.

The Senate has also passed a bill to create a new department of the government, to be called the Department of Agriculture. This department would be responsible for promoting agriculture and improving the lives of farmers.

Maryland.

The Maryland legislature has passed a resolution to support the Union, and to resist any attempts at secession. Governor Foster has signed the resolution, and has called for a special session of the legislature to discuss the situation.

New York.

The New York legislature has passed a bill to increase the state's military force, in anticipation of a possible war with the Confederacy. Governor Foster has signed the bill, and has called for a special session of the legislature to discuss the situation.

Pennsylvania.

The Pennsylvania legislature has passed a bill to increase the state's military force, in anticipation of a possible war with the Confederacy. Governor Foster has signed the bill, and has called for a special session of the legislature to discuss the situation.

The Republican Party.

The Republican Party has nominated Mr. Lincoln for President, and Mr. Douglas for Vice President. The party has also nominated a slate of candidates for Congress, including Mr. Bell in Pennsylvania and Mr. Lincoln in New York.

The Democratic Party.

The Democratic Party has nominated Mr. Bell for President, and Mr. Douglas for Vice President. The party has also nominated a slate of candidates for Congress, including Mr. Bell in Pennsylvania and Mr. Lincoln in New York.

The Whig Party.

The Whig Party has nominated Mr. Lincoln for President, and Mr. Douglas for Vice President. The party has also nominated a slate of candidates for Congress, including Mr. Bell in Pennsylvania and Mr. Lincoln in New York.

The Union.

The Union is united in its support of the American government and its citizens. The Union has declared that it will not tolerate any acts of secession or rebellion, and will use all necessary means to preserve the Union.

The Union Army.

The Union Army is prepared for any possible war with the Confederacy. The army has increased its size, and has received additional funding from Congress to support its operations.

The Union Navy.

The Union Navy is prepared for any possible war with the Confederacy. The navy has increased its size, and has received additional funding from Congress to support its operations.

The Union Constitution.

The Union Constitution is the foundation of the Union, and it will be defended to the last. The Union will not tolerate any acts of secession or rebellion, and will use all necessary means to preserve the Union.

The Union Government.

The Union Government is united in its support of the American government and its citizens. The Union will not tolerate any acts of secession or rebellion, and will use all necessary means to preserve the Union.

The Union People.

The Union People are united in their support of the American government and its citizens. The Union will not tolerate any acts of secession or rebellion, and will use all necessary means to preserve the Union.
THE TRAVELER.

The recent absence of our valued contributor, Mr. Baker, has been in the west, where he was employed in the service of the government. He has now returned, and will continue to supply us with valuable intelligence and entertaining articles. His next contribution will be published in the next number of the Spirit.

MARRIAGE.

The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Jones took place on Monday last, in the presence of a large company of friends. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, and the couple were pronounced man and wife by the officiating clergyman. The wedding was a happy one, and the bride and groom were much beloved by their friends. The wedding breakfast was given at the bride's residence, and was attended by a large number of guests. The couple will reside in the city, where they will enjoy the society of their friends.

THE CONVENTION.

The Convention of the Republican Party met in the City Hall, on Monday last, and elected the following officers: Mr. Smith, President; Mr. Johnson, Vice-President; Mr. Brown, Secretary; and Mr. Jones, Treasurer.

DR. WILLIAM B. WASHINGTON.

The death of Dr. William B. Washington, one of the most prominent physicians of the city, was announced on Wednesday last. He had been a patient sufferer for several months, and his death was not unexpected. He was a man of great ability, and had made a specialty of the treatment of diseases of the eye.

THE PATH OF PROGRESS.

The progress of science is ever onward, and new discoveries are being made every day. The latest discovery is in the field of electricity. A new apparatus has been invented which will enable us to transmit messages over great distances without any wires. This discovery will revolutionize the art of telegraphy, and will make it possible to communicate with any part of the world instantly.

THE JEWISH COMMUNITY.

The Jewish community of the city is growing rapidly. The number of Jews in the city has increased by several thousand during the past year. The Jews are a hardy race, and are able to withstand the rigors of the climate. They are also a industrious people, and are well able to earn a living.

COAL TRADE.

The coal trade is in a flourishing condition. The demand for coal is great, and the supply is ample. The coal is of a high grade, and is sold at a profitable price.

STAGGERING FINES.

The city council has passed a resolution imposing heavy fines on those who violate the city laws. The fines range from $5 to $50, according to the nature of the offense. This is a just and necessary measure, as the city must be protected from disorder and crime.

BLOODY GAINS OF HER.

A bank robbery occurred in the city last Saturday, and the perpetrators were arrested by the police. The robbers made away with a large sum of money, and were said to have escaped into the country.

FOOTNOTES.

1. The United States has a large debt, and is in great need of revenue. The revenue is derived from the sale of public lands, the taxation of the people, and the issuance of bonds. The bonds are sold to foreign countries, and the proceeds are used to pay the interest on the public debt.

2. The government is in debt to the amount of $1,350,000,000. The debt is increasing rapidly, and the country is in great danger of bankruptcy.

3. The war has caused much suffering and loss of life. The soldiers have been well paid, and are well fed and clothed. The wounded have been well cared for, and have received good medical treatment.
VALLEY SPIRIT—SEPTEMBER 19, '60.

CAMBRIA, PA.

Wednesday morning, Sept. 19, 1860.

1. The main object of all good voters is the promotion of the Republican candidate.

2. The principal object of all good voters is the promotion of the Republican candidate.

3. The principal object of all good voters is the promotion of the Republican candidate.

4. The principal object of all good voters is the promotion of the Republican candidate.

5. The principal object of all good voters is the promotion of the Republican candidate.

6. The principal object of all good voters is the promotion of the Republican candidate.

7. The principal object of all good voters is the promotion of the Republican candidate.

8. The principal object of all good voters is the promotion of the Republican candidate.

9. The principal object of all good voters is the promotion of the Republican candidate.

10. The principal object of all good voters is the promotion of the Republican candidate.
Here again...

The Union is...