VALLEY SPIRIT—NOVEMBER 28, '60.

WALTON DANIELS & BETH PLATT

DR. TAYLOR,

Dear Sir,--I am now in receipt of your favor of the 17th inst., and I am happy to inform you that I have let you have the 1000 shares of the capital stock of the Western Mutual Life Insurance Company, Limited, of which we have been the founders and subscribers for the purpose of raising the capital to meet the demands upon it from the Government, and to pay the interest of the bonds issued by the Company. The subscription list is now closed, and the subscription to the stock will be opened on the 1st of next month.

Yours, truly,

WALTON DANIELS & BETH PLATT.

WE ARE NOT STRANGERS.

BY E. W. TAYLOR.

The subject of our next article is the question of the admission of new States into the Union. It is a subject of great interest, and one which will be long remembered by all who have any interest in the welfare of the country. The question is now before the nation, and the people are divided upon it. Some think that the admission of new States should be stopped, while others believe that it should be encouraged. The question is one of great importance, and it is one which will be long remembered by all who have any interest in the welfare of the country.

Yours, truly,

E. W. TAYLOR.

DIE AND ACCESS OF TOBACCO.

BY E. W. TAYLOR.

To the Editor of the Times:

SIR,—I am in receipt of your favor of the 17th inst., and I am happy to inform you that I have let you have the 1000 shares of the capital stock of the Western Mutual Life Insurance Company, Limited, of which we have been the founders and subscribers for the purpose of raising the capital to meet the demands upon it from the Government, and to pay the interest of the bonds issued by the Company. The subscription list is now closed, and the subscription to the stock will be opened on the 1st of next month.

Yours, truly,

WALTON DANIELS & BETH PLATT.

THE HISTORY OF THE PARROT.

BY E. W. TAYLOR.

The history of the parrot is a subject of great interest, and one which will be long remembered by all who have any interest in the welfare of the country. The parrot is a bird of great beauty, and one which is found in all parts of the world. The history of the parrot is a subject of great interest, and one which will be long remembered by all who have any interest in the welfare of the country.

Yours, truly,

E. W. TAYLOR.

THE HISTORY OF THE PARROT.

BY E. W. TAYLOR.

The history of the parrot is a subject of great interest, and one which will be long remembered by all who have any interest in the welfare of the country. The parrot is a bird of great beauty, and one which is found in all parts of the world. The history of the parrot is a subject of great interest, and one which will be long remembered by all who have any interest in the welfare of the country.

Yours, truly,

E. W. TAYLOR.
VALLEY SPIRIT—NOVEMBER 28, '30.

VALLEY SPIRIT.
CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

FRANCIS H. WEAVER.

News of the Week.
During the past season in the financial and commercial circles of the country, there has been much speculation about the future of the Union. Many believe it is likely to be abandoned in favor of the Southern States. This speculation is based on the fact that the Southern States have been experiencing a series of financial crises that have seriously undermined the stability of the Union.

Many financial experts have taken a pessimistic view of the Union's future, and they believe that the Union is likely to fall apart. They argue that the separation of the Southern States from the Union has already caused a significant economic downturn, and that this trend is likely to continue.

However, others believe that the Union is more stable than it appears. They point out that the Union has a strong economic base and that it is unlikely to collapse. They argue that the Union is likely to continue to exist, despite the challenges it faces.

Despite the speculation, there is no conclusive evidence that the Union is likely to fall apart. The issues that have caused the economic downturn are complex and multifaceted, and it is difficult to predict how they will play out in the future.

In the meantime, the citizens of the Union are working to address the economic challenges they face. Many are focused on finding ways to stabilize the economy and create jobs, while others are working to improve the quality of life in their communities.

The future of the Union is uncertain, but what is clear is that the citizens of the Union are determined to work together to create a brighter future for their country.

*

The Pennsylvania Governor's Report.
Governor Smith has released his annual report, which provides a comprehensive overview of the state's progress in the past year. The report highlights achievements in education, healthcare, infrastructure, and economic development.

In the area of education, Governor Smith notes that the state has made significant progress in increasing access to higher education. The state has invested heavily in expanding the availability of online courses and providing financial assistance to students.

Governor Smith also highlights the state's efforts to improve healthcare access and affordability. The state has implemented a number of initiatives to reduce the cost of healthcare and make it more accessible to all residents.

In the area of infrastructure, Governor Smith notes that the state has made significant investments in improving roads and bridges, as well as expanding public transportation options.

Finally, Governor Smith highlights the state's efforts to foster economic growth. The state has implemented a number of initiatives to attract new businesses and create jobs, and the economy has responded positively.

Overall, Governor Smith's report is a testament to the state's commitment to improving the lives of its residents. The state is making progress in addressing its most pressing challenges, and it is poised to continue to make progress in the years to come.

The Pennsylvania Governor's Report is available online at the state's official website.
LOCAL NEWS.

These Proprietors for Sale, Inclined shaving machine, or any kind of shaving appliances; also a complete set of shaving brushes, &c., for sale. The firm of E. S. & Co., have a large stock of shaving brushes, &c., and are prepared to supply any quantity. They are also prepared to supply any quantity.

The new addition to the Valley Spirit will be published every Wednesday, and will contain all the latest news from the different parts of the country. It will be issued every Wednesday, and will contain all the latest news from the different parts of the country.

The local news is from various sources, and is compiled by the editor of the Valley Spirit. It is sent out every Wednesday, and will contain all the latest news from the different parts of the country.