VOL. 14.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 10, 1861.
NUMBER 30.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

REV. HENRY J. VAN DYKE.

VALLEY SPIRIT.

I propose to discuss the question of slavery and the war between the North and the South. I have selected a text from the Bible and a passage from the American Constitution to illustrate the point I wish to make.

In the Bible, Matthew 25:31-46, Jesus says: "For as the Father hath judged me, so shall he also judge his servants." This passage is often cited as evidence that slavery is a just and right institution.

In the American Constitution, Article VI, Section 2, it is stated that "The Constitution of the United States is the supreme law of the land." This clause is sometimes interpreted as giving the federal government the power to regulate slavery.

In conclusion, I believe that the Bible and the Constitution both support the cause of freedom and equality.

I hope this discussion will provide a meaningful insight into the complex issue of slavery and the war between the North and the South.
