VALLEY SPIRIT.
CHAMBERSBURG, PA.
VOLUME 14.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 27, 1861.
NUMBER 58.

Choice Poetry.

Democrat Poem for the Valley Spirit.

In this issue:

- The Peace of the States.
- The Democratic Convention.
- The Recent Events in the South.
- The Current Events in the North.
- The Latest News from the Front.
- The Latest Music and Theatre Reviews.
- The Latest Agricultural and Scientific News.
- The Latest Business and Commercial News.
- The Latest Local News from the Valley.

The editorial section includes articles on the current political situation, the latest news from the war, and various discussions on the state of the Union and the future of the nation.
VALLLEY SPIRIT—FEBRUARY 27, '61.

[Text of article continues here]
VALLEY SPIRIT.

February 27, 1861.

VALLEY SPIRIT.

J. J. B. FLINT, Editor.

NEW YORK.

DID YOU NOT KNOW WHAT A MAGNIFICENT PAPER YOU HAVE CREATED BY YOUR LABORS AT THE SOUTH?

W. H. S. BUSH, Circular.

MEMPHIS, TENN., April 7, 1861.

To the Editor of the New York Spirit:

I am not a reader of your paper, but I have heard that you are publishing a splendid work of art. I have never seen any paper that could compare with it in excellence. I am much pleased with it, and I think it is the best paper that has ever been published in the South. I wish you would continue to publish it as long as you live.

Very truly yours,

W. H. S. BUSH.

Circular.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 21, 1861.

To the Editor of the New York Spirit:

I am much pleased with your paper. It is the best paper that has ever been published in the United States. I have never seen any paper that could compare with it in excellence. I wish you would continue to publish it as long as you live.

Very truly yours,

SYRACUSE, N. Y.

Circular.

BRISTOL, ENGLAND, April 10, 1861.

To the Editor of the New York Spirit:

I am much pleased with your paper. It is the best paper that has ever been published in the United States. I have never seen any paper that could compare with it in excellence. I wish you would continue to publish it as long as you live.

Very truly yours,

BRISTOL, ENGLAND.

Circular.

NEW YORK, April 15, 1861.

To the Editor of the New York Spirit:

I am much pleased with your paper. It is the best paper that has ever been published in the United States. I have never seen any paper that could compare with it in excellence. I wish you would continue to publish it as long as you live.

Very truly yours,

NEW YORK.

Circular.

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 20, 1861.

To the Editor of the New York Spirit:

I am much pleased with your paper. It is the best paper that has ever been published in the United States. I have never seen any paper that could compare with it in excellence. I wish you would continue to publish it as long as you live.

Very truly yours,

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Circular.

PHILADELPHIA, April 25, 1861.

To the Editor of the New York Spirit:

I am much pleased with your paper. It is the best paper that has ever been published in the United States. I have never seen any paper that could compare with it in excellence. I wish you would continue to publish it as long as you live.

Very truly yours,

PHILADELPHIA.

Circular.

BOSTON, April 30, 1861.

To the Editor of the New York Spirit:

I am much pleased with your paper. It is the best paper that has ever been published in the United States. I have never seen any paper that could compare with it in excellence. I wish you would continue to publish it as long as you live.

Very truly yours,

BOSTON.

Circular.

SALT LAKE CITY, May 5, 1861.

To the Editor of the New York Spirit:

I am much pleased with your paper. It is the best paper that has ever been published in the United States. I have never seen any paper that could compare with it in excellence. I wish you would continue to publish it as long as you live.

Very truly yours,

SALT LAKE CITY.

Circular.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10, 1861.

To the Editor of the New York Spirit:

I am much pleased with your paper. It is the best paper that has ever been published in the United States. I have never seen any paper that could compare with it in excellence. I wish you would continue to publish it as long as you live.

Very truly yours,

SAN FRANCISCO.

Circular.

CHICAGO, May 15, 1861.

To the Editor of the New York Spirit:

I am much pleased with your paper. It is the best paper that has ever been published in the United States. I have never seen any paper that could compare with it in excellence. I wish you would continue to publish it as long as you live.

Very truly yours,

CHICAGO.

Circular.

MINNEAPOLIS, May 20, 1861.

To the Editor of the New York Spirit:

I am much pleased with your paper. It is the best paper that has ever been published in the United States. I have never seen any paper that could compare with it in excellence. I wish you would continue to publish it as long as you live.

Very truly yours,

MINNEAPOLIS.

Circular.