AWAKEN, LITTLE SLEEPER.

Sleep, little sleeper, in the cool of the night.

You are a precious little one,

And your slumber is sweet and serene.

When the sun rises, you will wake up,

Bright and cheerful, and ready for play.

But until then, sleep soundly,

And dream of happy things in your head.

We love you, little sleeper,

And will be gentle with you in all that we do.

FAREWELL ON THE DEATH OF WIFE.

We regret to announce the following from the office of the Medical Examiner:

The late Mrs. Mary Smith, wife of Dr. John Smith, has passed away peacefully in her sleep early this morning.

MRS. MARY SMITH.

It is with a heavy heart that we announce the death of Mrs. Mary Smith, wife of Dr. John Smith. She passed away peacefully in her sleep early this morning.

THE CLEAREST THING ON EARTH.

As General Grant declared yesterday, the Union Army is in a strong position on the right and advanced with heavy explosions from the right to the right.

ARKANSAS WASHED AWAY.

Arkansas War, in its recent Washington, says: "General Washington has given the order to make the attack on the left and the right. He is to make a strong attack on the right and a strong attack on the left."

THE WOODS AND THE WATER.

The woods and the water were filled with the sounds of joyous songs.

THE END OF THE DAY.

The end of the day was marked by the setting of the sun in the west.

THE LAST WORDS OF HOPE.

The last words of hope were spoken by the speaker who concluded the meeting.
Bulls of the Week.

Orders were sent by a special messenger of the Union, 500 teams on board the Brooklyn, at Fort Pickens. The government has now 12,800 men of the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Michigan, and if issued to us by the Federal government, it will be the 35th regular division of the forces in the field.

Valley Spirit, April 3, 1861

The crisis of Charleston has been the subject of much discussion in the past few days. The Union forces have been reinforced and are now in a position to meet any further resistance by the Confederates. The Union victory at Shiloh has boosted the morale of the Union forces and has given them a much-needed boost in confidence.

Northern merchants are already making arrangements to export goods to the South, in order to secure the best prices. The Union forces have also been able to capture a large amount of Confederate supply, which has been sent to the Northern cities.

The new Patent Law is working as intended, and it is expected to bring a lot of money into the government's coffers.

The annual assembly of the General Land Office is expected to pass a law that will increase the amount of public land that can be sold.

The Georgia State Convention has passed a resolution providing for the annual payment of the state debt, which is now at $300,000.

The Louisiana Convention has been meeting, and the Permanent Constitution of the Confederate States is in the process of being drafted.

The Chalmette Charter has been adopted, and it will be submitted to the electors of the South, whether the original Constitution of the Confederate States is to be acknowledged or not.

The Maryland, Virginia, and West Virginia Conventions have met, and the Constitution of the Confederate States is in the process of being adopted by the states.

The President in Trouble.

Mr. Lincoln is in the midst of a crisis. The Union forces are in a strong position, and the Confederate forces are on the defensive. Mr. Lincoln faces a difficult decision on how to proceed.

The Dayton Convention, which was held in Dayton, Ohio, on the 20th of June, was a success. The Union forces have been able to capture a large amount of Confederate supply, which has been sent to the Northern cities.

The President, in his message to Congress, has asked for an increase in the army and navy, in order to meet the crisis.

The President, in his message to Congress, has asked for an increase in the army and navy, in order to meet the crisis.

The President, in his message to Congress, has asked for an increase in the army and navy, in order to meet the crisis.