SEMI-WEEKLY VALLEY SPIRIT.

HARRISBURG, JULY 8, 1861.

Just arrived.

From the statements of persons who were present at the scene of the battle of Gettysburg on Tuesday morning Gen. McCollum passed in review the regiments of the Union Army before him on their march to the relief of Washington, and a number of the officers and men were selected to form a guard for the same. Among those selected was Capt. McCollum, who commanded the 1st Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry. He was followed by the 1st Wisconsin and 1st Michigan. The officers of these regiments were paraded on foot, and their names were called by Capt. McCollum. The order was given to march, and the troops marched off in a leisurely manner down Market Street, followed by the 1st Wisconsin and 1st Michigan. The officers of these regiments were paraded on foot, and their names were called by Capt. McCollum. The order was given to march, and the troops marched off in a leisurely manner down Market Street, followed by the 1st Wisconsin and 1st Michigan.

The World and the Tribune.

The World and the Tribune.

The New York World has abolished the so-called "Blueprint System," which has been the cause of much trouble and dissatisfaction. The World has also abolished the so-called "Blueprint System," which has been the cause of much trouble and dissatisfaction. The World has also abolished the so-called "Blueprint System," which has been the cause of much trouble and dissatisfaction. The World has also abolished the so-called "Blueprint System," which has been the cause of much trouble and dissatisfaction. The World has also abolished the so-called "Blueprint System," which has been the cause of much trouble and dissatisfaction. The World has also abolished the so-called "Blueprint System," which has been the cause of much trouble and dissatisfaction.