WASHINGTON, July 10

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.

Mr. King of N.Y. offered a resolution authorizing the President to conciliate the present difficulty by the exercise of the power of mediation, and that this resolution should pass. It was unanimously adopted.