Army News.

The news from the Army is still the same. The Headquarters reports that a large body of troops has been sent to the Northern States in response to the call for the Union Army. They have marched overland and arrived in good order. The troops are well supplied with provisions and everything necessary for their comfort.

The President has issued a proclamation calling for 300,000 volunteers to serve in the Union Army. The response has been enthusiastic, and thousands of men have volunteered. The President has also issued a call for 50,000 additional troops from the Regular Army. The troops are being mustered in and shipments are being made to the front.

The soldiers are in high spirits and are ready for action. They are well trained and well armed. The officers are experienced and devoted to the cause. The Union Army is well organized and well led. The soldiers are ready to fight for their country and their freedom.

The War Tax.

The War Tax is still causing a great deal of controversy. The Union Government has imposed a tax on the property of all those who are profiting from the war. The tax is intended to help defray the expenses of the war and to provide funds for the support of the Union Army.

The tax is being collected by the local authorities and is not popular with the people. Many believe that the tax is unfair and that it is being used to line the pockets of the wealthy. The tax is also causing a great deal of hardship for those who cannot afford to pay it.

The Union Government is determined to collect the tax and has threatened to take legal action against those who do not comply. The tax is causing a great deal of controversy and is likely to continue to be a source of tension in the Union.

The True Union Party.

The True Union Party is gaining in strength and influence. The party is made up of those who believe in the preservation of the Union and the Constitution. They are opposed to the secession of the Southern States and believe in the necessity of fighting for the Union.

The True Union Party is becoming more organized and is beginning to take a more active role in the political process. They are likely to become a significant force in the coming elections and will play a role in determining the outcome of the war.
