Democrats.

The votes of all parties appear to have been evenly divided upon the Republican ticket, as those of defeated, and not a single candidate for the Republican party for the purpose of securing a majority of the electors.

The Republicans are very likely to be the greatest beneficiaries of the returning ticket.

They have no doubt kept their eyes on the Democratic party, who have been reduced to the position of losing their candidate, by the action of the people of this county, who have turned out and voted against the Democrats, and have thus kept them to the position of being defeated.

The Democrats.

The Democracy, having lost their candidate, are left with the task of trying to make up their minds as to what they shall do next.

They have not yet come to any decision on the matter, but are keeping their eyes on the Democratic party, who have been reduced to the position of losing their candidate, by the action of the people of this county, who have turned out and voted against the Democrats, and have thus kept them to the position of being defeated.
