FROM THE NAVAL EXPEDITION: Glorious Victory.

Arrival of a Barracuda Despatch at Philadelphia with a brilliant intelligence of the capture of the Pulaski and other vessels. The account is full of details and is confirmed by other sources. The Pulaski was taken with a loss of 300 men, and the other vessels with a smaller number. The Barracuda was sent in by Capt. St. Clair of the Pulaski.

TWO TRANSPORTS AND A BATTLESHIP CAPTURED BY THE C.W.S. CONFEDERATE NAVY ORDER.

The news has just been received of the capture of two Union transports and a battle-ship by the Confederate Navy. The transports were valuable, and the battle-ship is of great importance. The Confederate Navy is making good progress towards capturing these vessels.

THE SBIK MURDERED.

The SBIK, a merchant vessel, was murdered by a band of rebels near Richmond. The vessel was carrying a large amount of merchandise, and the loss is great. The rebels have been very active in these parts, and the situation is critical.

TOTAL ROUT OF THE ENEMY.

The enemy's forces have been completely routed, and the loss is heavy. The news is confirmed by reliable sources.

THE REBELS FLY THE STANDARDS.

The rebels have fled in great numbers, leaving their standards and arms behind. The news is confirmed by reliable sources.

NO FIGHT AT WESTPORT.

From the Western Front, Fort Sumter, Nov. 18.
The news from Fort Sumter is that there has been no fight at Westport. The rebels have been repulsed, and the position is secure. The news is confirmed by reliable sources.

THE ESSEX AND THE SHERMAN.

The Essex, a Union war-ship, and the Sherman, a Confederate war-ship, have been engaged in a severe battle. The Essex is towing the Sherman, and the news is confirmed by reliable sources.

THE US AND THE CONFEDERATES.

The Union and Confederate forces have been engaged in a severe battle. The news is confirmed by reliable sources.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

The President has issued a message to the Congress, in which he states the condition of the Union and the necessity for a prompt and vigorous prosecution of the war. The message is published in full.

THE ARMS FACTORY.

The arms factory at Petersburg has been captured by the rebels. The loss is heavy, and the situation is critical. The news is confirmed by reliable sources.

THE SIEGE OF RICHMOND.

The siege of Richmond is progressing, and the situation is critical. The news is confirmed by reliable sources.

THE UNION NAVY.

The Union Navy has made a daring attack on the Confederate fleet. The news is confirmed by reliable sources.

THE SHERMAN'S ADVANCE.

The Sherman's advance is progressing, and the situation is critical. The news is confirmed by reliable sources.

THE UNION ARMIES.

The Union armies are making good progress, and the situation is critical. The news is confirmed by reliable sources.
me, it was to refer to the "Valley Spirit." It was a...