In one of Mr. Wool's letters from Abilene, the following are told:

"The day before yesterday, I was with a friend of mine who had stopped in the store to purchase something. While we were talking, a man entered the room. He was dressed in the latest fashion and had a very pleasant manner. As soon as he saw us, he walked over to the counter and asked if there was anything he could help us with.

"I said yes, and he asked what I needed. I told him I needed a new shirt and he said he would be happy to help. He showed me a few different designs and helped me choose the one that I liked best. Then he measured me and told me to come back in a week for my new shirt.

"I was very pleased with the service and the clothes. I have decided to buy more clothes from this store in the future."

"Dear Mr. Wool,

I had to stop by your store yesterday. I was looking for a new shirt and the man at the counter was very helpful. He showed me a few different designs and helped me choose the one that I liked best. Then he measured me and told me to come back in a week for my new shirt.

"I am very pleased with the service and the clothes. I have decided to buy more clothes from this store in the future."

Sincerely,

[Paragraphs discussing political matters and the American Civil War, including references to specific events, figures, and positions.

The Democratic party is not by any means out of existence. It has a foothold of its own, and will live to fight another day. The Republican party will pay for the indiscretion of Mr. Lincoln by the fall of the next session.

The Free States party.

The radical Republican are beginning to realize that they have a large percentage of the population with whom they are at variance. They have a large percentage of the population who are in favor of the Republican party. They have a large percentage of the population who are in favor of the Abraham Lincoln administration.

The question of emancipation.

The question of emancipation is now being discussed in the Congress. The Senate and the House of Representatives are both engaged in the discussion.
