THE CONSTITUTION.

ON THE CONSTITUTION.

HON. GEORGE B. C. BURGESS

Before the City Council and City Officers.

Mr. Mayor and Members of the City Council:

I have the honor to present to you, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

I have the honor to present to you, sir, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

In the meantime, I am, with the highest respect, your obedient servant,

Hon. George B. C. Burgess.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

VOLUME 18.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 10, 1862.

NUMBER 3.

THE CONSTITUTION.

AN ORATION.

HON. GEORGE B. BURGESS

Before the City Council and City Officers.

Mr. Mayor and Members of the City Council:

I have the honor to present to you, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

I have the honor to present to you, sir, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

In the meantime, I am, with the highest respect, your obedient servant,

Hon. George B. C. Burgess.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

VOLUME 18.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 10, 1862.

NUMBER 3.

THE CONSTITUTION.

AN ORATION.

HON. GEORGE B. BURGESS

Before the City Council and City Officers.

Mr. Mayor and Members of the City Council:

I have the honor to present to you, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

I have the honor to present to you, sir, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

In the meantime, I am, with the highest respect, your obedient servant,

Hon. George B. C. Burgess.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

VOLUME 18.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 10, 1862.

NUMBER 3.

THE CONSTITUTION.

AN ORATION.

HON. GEORGE B. BURGESS

Before the City Council and City Officers.

Mr. Mayor and Members of the City Council:

I have the honor to present to you, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

I have the honor to present to you, sir, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

In the meantime, I am, with the highest respect, your obedient servant,

Hon. George B. C. Burgess.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

VOLUME 18.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 10, 1862.

NUMBER 3.

THE CONSTITUTION.

AN ORATION.

HON. GEORGE B. BURGESS

Before the City Council and City Officers.

Mr. Mayor and Members of the City Council:

I have the honor to present to you, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

I have the honor to present to you, sir, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

In the meantime, I am, with the highest respect, your obedient servant,

Hon. George B. C. Burgess.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

VOLUME 18.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 10, 1862.

NUMBER 3.

THE CONSTITUTION.

AN ORATION.

HON. GEORGE B. BURGESS

Before the City Council and City Officers.

Mr. Mayor and Members of the City Council:

I have the honor to present to you, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

I have the honor to present to you, sir, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

In the meantime, I am, with the highest respect, your obedient servant,

Hon. George B. C. Burgess.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

VOLUME 18.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 10, 1862.

NUMBER 3.

THE CONSTITUTION.

AN ORATION.

HON. GEORGE B. BURGESS

Before the City Council and City Officers.

Mr. Mayor and Members of the City Council:

I have the honor to present to you, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

I have the honor to present to you, sir, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

In the meantime, I am, with the highest respect, your obedient servant,

Hon. George B. C. Burgess.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

VOLUME 18.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 10, 1862.

NUMBER 3.

THE CONSTITUTION.

AN ORATION.

HON. GEORGE B. BURGESS

Before the City Council and City Officers.

Mr. Mayor and Members of the City Council:

I have the honor to present to you, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

I have the honor to present to you, sir, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

In the meantime, I am, with the highest respect, your obedient servant,

Hon. George B. C. Burgess.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

VOLUME 18.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 10, 1862.

NUMBER 3.

THE CONSTITUTION.

AN ORATION.

HON. GEORGE B. BURGESS

Before the City Council and City Officers.

Mr. Mayor and Members of the City Council:

I have the honor to present to you, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

I have the honor to present to you, sir, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

In the meantime, I am, with the highest respect, your obedient servant,

Hon. George B. C. Burgess.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

VOLUME 18.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 10, 1862.

NUMBER 3.

THE CONSTITUTION.

AN ORATION.

HON. GEORGE B. BURGESS

Before the City Council and City Officers.

Mr. Mayor and Members of the City Council:

I have the honor to present to you, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

I have the honor to present to you, sir, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

In the meantime, I am, with the highest respect, your obedient servant,

Hon. George B. C. Burgess.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

VOLUME 18.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 10, 1862.

NUMBER 3.

THE CONSTITUTION.

AN ORATION.

HON. GEORGE B. BURGESS

Before the City Council and City Officers.

Mr. Mayor and Members of the City Council:

I have the honor to present to you, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

I have the honor to present to you, sir, at the next session, the following paper, which I hope will convince you of its importance.

In the meantime, I am, with the highest respect, your obedient servant,

Hon. George B. C. Burgess.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

VOLUME 18.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 10, 1862.

NUMBER 3.
CHAPTER II.

It was a very pleasant evening, and the air was filled with the sound of distant music. Katy and Mary were sitting in the garden, enjoying the coolness of the evening. Katy was engrossed in reading a book, while Mary was busy sewing. Suddenly, Katy exclaimed:

Katy: "Oh, I wish I could fly!"

Mary: "And I wish I could fly as well, Katy. It would be so wonderful to soar through the sky, like a bird."

Katy: "But I can't fly, Mary. I'm just a girl, and I never will be able to fly."

Mary: "Don't be sad, Katy. One day, you will be able to fly, and you'll be able to see the world from a different perspective."

Katy: "I hope so, Mary. I hope so.

The sun began to set, casting a beautiful glow over the garden. Katy and Mary were content to sit there, enjoying the peace and tranquility of the evening. They talked about their dreams and aspirations, and how they hoped to one day fulfill them.

As the night fell, Katy and Mary returned to their home, tired but content. They knew that despite the challenges they faced, they would always find joy in the simple pleasures of life. And as they entered their house, they knew that the future held many more adventures and experiences for them to enjoy.
The Valley Spirit

July 16, 1862

CHAMBERSBURG, PA

DEMOCRATIC STATE TRIBUNE

COLUMN OF THE WEST

THE NATIONAL PLATFORM -
Portions of the War

Without a vote in Deeds or Measures, the following is the Organic Act of the Constitution of the United States of America in 1860:

"The Constitution of the United States of America is the supreme law of the land. All laws and ordinances contravening it are null and void."

The national emergency, arising out of the action of the rebellious states, will require, still more than hitherto, the most patriotic spirit and conduct on the part of all who may be in any way interested in the safety and prosperity of the nation. We shall therefore do all in our power to maintain the Constitution and the Union; for, without them, there can be no safety or prosperity for the people of this country.

We solemnly protest against the unauthorized interference of any person, small or great, in any way to obstruct the prompt and efficient execution of the laws of the land. We shall stand firm in the defense of our rights, and shall resist with all our power any attempt to change or overthrow the laws of the country.

We earnestly recommend to the attention of our countrymen the following principles:

1. That the Constitution is the supreme law of the land, and that all laws and ordinances contravening it are null and void.

2. That the Union is the supreme government of the land, and that all attempts to change or overthrow it are treasonable.

3. That the peace and safety of the country depend on the preservation of the Constitution and the Union.

4. That the people have a right to resist any person, small or great, in any way to obstruct the prompt and efficient execution of the laws of the land.

We believe that these principles are essential to the safety and prosperity of the country, and that we shall stand firm in the defense of them.

We conclude with the following resolutions:

1. That we shall stand firm in the defense of the Constitution and the Union.

2. That we shall resist with all our power any attempt to change or overthrow the laws of the land.

3. That we shall support all laws and ordinances which tend to maintain the Constitution and the Union.

4. That we shall condemn all attempts to change or overthrow the Constitution and the Union.

We publish this document as a public expression of our sentiments and principles, and as a call to all our countrymen to stand firm in the defense of the Constitution and the Union.