McClernand’s Farewell!

His Address to the Army of the Potomac.

Closing Scenes of Field Operations. Alliances in His Troops.

Spirits of the Times. Two Year Anniversary.

The Spirit of the Times. Two Year Anniversary.

The Spirit of the Times. Two Year Anniversary.

The Spirit of the Times. Two Year Anniversary.

The Spirit of the Times. Two Year Anniversary.
In the Valley Spirit and Times, Wednesday, January 10, 1860.

Wristwatches are not always as expensive as 'racy girls in the band of the FAIR.' Something that the police recommend to the ladies of the city is a watch. The receiver is in a case of gold, and the band is of silver. The watch is wound by a key, and the time is shown by two hands. The cost is from five to ten dollars. The watch is not only a ornament, but also a very good timekeeper. It is very convenient to carry in a purse or pocket, and it is not likely to be lost or stolen.

JOSPEH SMITH.

Carriage was standing at the corner of the street, and the driver called to the man who was passing by, "Do you want a carriage?" The man replied, "Yes, I do." The driver said, "How many people?" The man replied, "Four." The driver said, "Where are you going?" The man replied, "To the theatre." The driver said, "How much will it be?" The man replied, "Thirty cents." The driver said, "That's all right." The man got into the carriage, and the driver drove away. The carriage was pulled by four horses, and the wheels were made of iron.

THE DELABARS.

Mrs. Delabar is of her usual good health, and she is doing her usual work. She is very kind and considerate, and she always has a smile on her face. She is very fond of her children, and she always takes good care of them.

There was a meeting of the church last Sunday, and the pastor spoke on the subject of "The Christian Life." He said that the Christian life is a life of goodness and love. He said that the Christian life is a life of prayer and meditation. He said that the Christian life is a life of sacrifice and self-denial. He said that the Christian life is a life of service and obedience.

The weather was very cold last Saturday, and the wind was very strong. The snow fell in large flakes, and it covered the ground with a white mantle. The children were playing in the snow, and they were very happy.

There was a funeral service at the church last Sunday, and the minister spoke on the subject of "Death." He said that death is not to be feared, but it is to be accepted with courage and faith. He said that death is not to be avoided, but it is to be embraced with love and hope. He said that death is not to be delayed, but it is to be hastened with joy and gratitude.

The school is in session, and the pupils are busy with their studies. They are learning reading, writing, arithmetic, and geography. They are also learning music, painting, and drawing. They are very happy and contented.

The weather is very cold, and the snow is falling heavily. The children are playing in the snow, and they are very happy. The parents are watching over their children, and they are very proud.

The school is in session, and the pupils are busy with their studies. They are learning reading, writing, arithmetic, and geography. They are also learning music, painting, and drawing. They are very happy and contented.

The weather is very cold, and the snow is falling heavily. The children are playing in the snow, and they are very happy. The parents are watching over their children, and they are very proud.