Why are we engaged in these contests? Is it not because we are anxious and determined to make our country free and happy? Is it not because we are resolved to maintain the Union and maintain our rights? Is it not because we are determined to have a Republic in which all men are free and equal? If so, let us be bound with common bonds.

Let us be bound with common bonds.

Recently there has been much talk about the Democratic Party. Many people say that the Democratic Party is the party of the people. They say that it stands for the people and that it represents the wishes of the people. This is not true. The Democratic Party is a sectional party. It is the party of the South, and it represents the interests of the South. It is not a party of the people.

Recently there has been much talk about the Republican Party. Many people say that the Republican Party is the party of the people. They say that it stands for the people and that it represents the wishes of the people. This is not true. The Republican Party is a national party. It is the party of the North, and it represents the interests of the North. It is not a party of the people.

Let us be bound with common bonds.

The Government is in the hands of men who are not fit to hold it. They are corrupt and treacherous. They are not worthy of the trust reposed in them. They are not capable of discharging their responsibilities.

If we are not careful, we shall suffer greatly. We shall be led astray. We shall be misled. We shall be betrayed. We must be careful. We must be vigilant. We must be on our guard.

Let us be bound with common bonds.

The Union is in danger. It is threatened by the South. It is threatened by the enemies of freedom. We must be on our guard. We must be vigilant. We must be firm.

Let us be bound with common bonds.
