CHAPTER CCCXXVIII.
The Democratic meeting called for the Fourth of July has been postponed one week, on account of the illness of some of the speakers to be present on the Fourth, and the announcements will be made next week.

The Democratic meeting was held yesterday in the Town Hall, with a large concourse of the people present. The doors were locked and the windows closed, and the meeting proceeded without interruption. The speeches were delivered with much spirit and enthusiasm, and the meeting was adjourned at five o'clock, having been continued for three hours. The meeting was addressed by Mr. A. H. Smith, Mr. J. B. Thompson, Mr. J. B. Fisk, Mr. J. B. Fisk, Jr., and Mr. J. B. Fisk, Sr. The resolutions were adopted without a dissenting voice.

The Administration has been very active since the last meeting, and has made many appointments to important offices. The President has appointed Mr. A. H. Smith to the office of Collector of the Port of Boston, and Mr. J. B. Thompson to the office of Postmaster of the City of New York. The Secretary of the Treasury has appointed Mr. J. B. Fisk, Jr., to the office of United States Marshal for the District of Massachusetts, and Mr. J. B. Fisk, Sr., to the office of United States Attorney for the District of New York. The Secretary of War has appointed Mr. A. H. Smith to the office of Quartermaster General of the Army, and Mr. J. B. Thompson to the office of Surgeon General of the Navy.

The Democratic party is in a lively condition, and is making every effort to gain the confidence of the people. The party is well organized, and has a large body of adherents. The Democratic candidates for office are in a strong position, and are sure to be elected.
