Agricultural

Without the protection there is an elimination of having a good crop. The winter's frost and snow cover the ground, preventing the growth of weeds, and the temperature will be low enough to kill off any insects that might survive the summer's heat. The ground will be ready for planting early in the spring.

The apple trees should be pruned in the spring, after the blossoms have fallen. The branches should be cut back to about six inches from the trunk, and any dead or diseased wood should be removed. The trees should be watered frequently during the hot summer months, and the soil should be well drained.

Insurance Companies

In the spring, all insurance companies should be notified of any changes in the land or improvements, such as fences or wells. The companies will then adjust the premiums accordingly.

The Rages and the War.

Although Mr. Lincoln's proclamation of freedom for the slaves has been in force for nearly a year, the people of the Southern States are not yet fully aware of the fact. The proclamation, which was signed by the President on the same day as the Emancipation Proclamation, was intended to be a step toward the end of the war, but it has not had the desired effect.
